Rashida Verma, a degree teacher, launched an entrepreneurial retail venture because she was upset that her students were coming to college in T-Shirts with negative messages on them. She saw kids wearing T-Shirts with slogans like "Spoiled Brat" or "I'm Stupid" and thought they were not "how happy kids think". Her research supported her contention. Kids preferred T-Shirts with "First grade rocks !", "Go Green". She created a business, "My kids". In her retail business, children under 18 submitted designs for T-Shirts, and customers voted on their favourites. The winners were added to her product line and received 3 percent of the profits from their designs.

Rashida Verma wanted to do more than just create a happy T-shirt retail outlet. From the beginning, her company had a charitable component. It donated part of its profits to a program called 'Free Arts for Abused Children'. As a teacher, she said, "I always stressed to my kids the idea of giving, the idea of sharing and this is how I run my business."

Question :—
