

Read the following passage, then answer the questions below.

My children are driving me crazy. I don't know what to do with them. They are both at school. The boy is eighteen and the girl is seventeen. They never spend more than five minutes a day on their homework. They run back from school, do their homework as fast as they can and then they do nothing but watch TV and listen to music. My son switches on TV as soon as the programmes start. My daughter is no better; she sits in front of her stereo putting on records of the music I have never heard of. What happened to reading, sailing, painting and things like that? All the things I used to do when I was a boy. I used to read three books a week when I was their age. When I was not reading, I was working on my father's boat or working in the garden.

The problem with today's children is that they get everything too easily. In my days, we had to do everything by ourselves. We didn't have a radio or a TV because my father believed they would waste our time. I think people in my age are more hardworking and more enthusiastic to enjoy their life and to do something for the benefits of the human beings.
