

The background of the slide features a vertical strip of a church interior. At the top, there is a mosaic depicting several figures, possibly saints or a biblical scene, in a traditional Byzantine style. Below the mosaic is a dark, ornate chandelier. The lower portion of the image shows a yellow fabric with circular patterns, likely a curtain or part of a decorative structure. The entire scene is set against a dark red background.

Local and Global Understandings of Creativities Ardian Ahmedaja, 2013-08-19 In music making in company the protagonists have to follow the rules of interaction and create the cohesion of being together At the same time they try to promote personal goals that depend on specific personal treasure troves of experience These are continuously being modified also as a result of the exchange between individuals The perspective of the individuals in company leads the emphasis of the investigations to the ways in which the acts of performance interpretation and local discourse give shape to creative processes in multipart music making and to the definition of the individual collective and collaborative dimensions in this context Focusing on the creators rather than on the produced object the studies included in this volume explore the diversity of the roles powers symbolism meanings and values given to the polyphony of voices in secular and religious traditions based on extensive fieldwork experience The contributors to this volume also consider the UNESCO s Intangible Cultural Heritage List in this context as well as the role of local national and international awards By understanding culture as a drug whose absorption is realised within interacting cells culture appears as a cellular network and music as quite an efficient device for its functioning

The Past Is Always Present Tore Tvarnø Lind,2012 In The Past Is Always Present Tore Tvarnø Lind examines the musical revival of Greek Orthodox chant at the monastery of Vatopaidi within the monastic society of Mount Athos Greece In particular Lind focuses on the musical activities at the monastery and the meaning of the past in the monks efforts at improving their musical performance practice through an emphasis on tradition Based on a decade of intense fieldwork and extensive interviews with members of Athos monastic community Lind covers a vast array of topics From musical notation and the Greek oral tradition to CD covers and music production the tension between tradition and modernity in the musical activity of the Athonite community raises a clear challenge to the quest to bring together Orthodox spirituality and quietude with musical production The Past Is Always Present addresses all of these matters by focusing on the significance and meaning of the local chanting style As Lind argues Byzantine chant cannot be fully grasped in musicological terms alone outside the context of prayer Yet because chant is fundamentally a way of communicating with God the sound generated must be exactly right pushing issues of music notation theory and performance practice to the forefront Byzantine chant Lind ultimately argues is a modern phenomenon as the monastic communities of Mount Athos negotiate with the realities of modern Orthodox identity in Greece By reporting on the musical revival activities of this remarkable community through the topics of notation musical theory drone singing and spiritual silence Lind looks at the ways in which Athonite heritage is shaped touching upon the Byzantine chant s contemporary relationship with practice of pilgrimage and the phenomenon of religious tourism Offering unique insights into the monastic culture at Mount Athos The Past Is Always Present is for those especially interested in sacred music past and present Greek culture monastic life religious tourism and the fields of ethnomusicology and anthropology A Descriptive Catalogue of the Musical Manuscript Collection of the National Library of Greece DianeH.
