Who Cares? Mary M. Brabeck,1989-09-07 Across societies and throughout time women have been traditionally classified as caregivers and relationship builders However as we enter the future the roles of girls and women are changing Who Cares offers investigations from theoretical and empirical perspectives into the ever changing views about the responsibilities of women Contributions from current outstanding feminist theorists examine the view that the ethic of care is gender related The contributors explore the arguments for and against the traditional view that the ethic of care is associated with girls and women and the ethic of justice with boys and men Who Cares presents the work of scholars from philosophy theology psychology and education who critically examine the questions surrounding the ever changing roles of women The book begins with an historical discussion of caring as described by women philosophers of the past two millenia Further chapters discuss the ethic of care the gender relatedness of care the political and psychological price of attributing care to women the socialization experiences that shape and develop the caring response and the caring self the relationship between care and rationality and between care and justice the distinction between a theory of care based on the norms of society and moral philosophy ethical framework of Black Third World and pink collar women This book is a must for students educators researchers and professionals in women s studies Good Practices in Building Innovative Rural Institutions to Increase Food Security Denis Herbel, International Fund for Agricultural Development, 2012 Evidence from the ground shows that when strong rural organizations such as producer groups and cooperatives provide a full range of services to small producers they are able to play a greater role in meeting a growing food demand on local national and international markets Indeed a myriad of such institutional innovations from around the world are documented in this FAO case study based publication Nevertheless to be able to provide a broad array of services to their members organizations have to develop a dense network of relationships among small producers between small producer organizations and with markets actors and policy makers Handbook of Counseling Psychology Steven D. Brown, Robert W. Lent, 1984-09-27 A thorough up to date compilation reviewing major areas of counseling psychology The only compendium in the field it assembles chapters from leading specialists summarizes the current state of the art and offers a look at the future This extremely practical tool synthesizes available research needs identifies possible applications of the research literature and encourages cross disciplinary communication among those in the field Reading is My Window Megan Sweeney, 2010 Reading Is My Window Books and the Art of Reading in Women s Prisons New Scientist, 2008-07 Changing Mindsets to Transform Security Linton Wells, Theodore C. Hailes, Michael Christopher Davies, 2013 This book is a compilation of papers and discussions from the Third International Transformation Conference and Workshop on Leader Development in Washington DC on June 19 20 2013 The event was sponsored by the NATO Headquarters Supreme Allied Commander Transformation hosted at the National Defense University and supported by the International Transformation Chairs Network Page 4 of cover Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice Bradford W. Sheafor, Charles R. Horejsi, 2006 0205446175 Sheafor Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice 7e The latest edition of this classic book continues to provide students and practitioners of social work with a one of a kind resource designed to emphasize the different techniques needed for successful practice Carefully updated to provide social workers with easy access to the most current information on professional techniques and guidelines and organized to support a generalist practice perspective Techniques and Guidelines for Social Work Practice illustrates multiple ways in which both direct and indirect intervention activities are a part of the social worker s repertoire Touching upon everything from cultural competence to macro practice the content of this text is so widely applicable it is an invaluable aid in making the transition to a professional career in social work and a staple of professional social work libraries In a classroom it is ideal for use in advanced practice capstone and field work courses Parts I and II summarize the essential foundation elements of social work practice while Parts III through V set out 157 clearly described techniques and guidelines that can be used by students and new practitioners The latest edition includes many changes that make it just as essential as previous editions Techniques deleted from prior editions due to space restrictions are now available at www.ablongman.com/sheafor7e New techniques include guidelines for assessing small group functioning family group conferencing and building mentoring relationships as well as addressing client concerns related to spirituality and religion and serving the client or community experiencing an emergency or disaster Following the lessons of 9 11 new content is included to prepare social workers to deal a client or community emergency Information is included on Family group conferencing a new approach based on the principles of restorative justice about which social workers should be knowledgeable New guidelines for using mentoring relationships in which senior practitioners without direct administrative responsibilities support and nurture developing social workers are included in this edition along with new guidelines for assessing small group functioning as a means of strengthening subsequent intervention activities with groups Chapter 14 now includes a straight forward description of techniques for conducting empirical direct practice evaluation with current illustrations based on students applications of the most commonly used evaluation tools
