Nyamnjoh,Richard Fonteh Akum,2008 This book documents the battles fought by the Anglophone community in Cameroon to safeguard the General Certificate of Education GCE a symbol of their cherished colonial heritage from Britain from attempts by agents of the Ministry of National Education to subvert it These battles opposed a mobilised and determined Anglophone civil society against numerous machinations by successive Francophone dominated governments to destroy their much prided educational system in the name of national integration When Southern Cameroonians re united with La Republique du Cameroun in 1961 they claimed that they were bringing into the union a fine education system from which their Francophone compatriots could borrow Instead they found themselves battling for decades to save their way of life Central to their concerns and survival as a community is an urgent need for cultural recognition and representation of which an educational system free of corruption and trivialisation through politicisation is a key component BOOK JACKET English Language [yearly]:worked Solutions Year by Year June & December1998 to 2000 ,2001 Past examination papers 1979-1983 West African Examinations Council,1985 Practising for GCE 'O' Level English Language Margaret Archer,Enid Nolan-Woods,1983 Human and Economic Geography ,2006 English in Cameroon Hans-Georg Wolf,2013-06-10 The multilingual situation in Cameroon and the status of English as a co official language constitute a unique and fascinating case for sociolinguistic investigation Drawing from first hand material the author investigates several aspects of this complex configuration including the historical development of English in Cameroon the various languages and lingua franca areas the linguistic policy the de facto status of English and the situation in the anglophone provinces The speech community of the Anglophones is highlighted as a rare example of an ethnicity tied to the second language Apart from important sociolinguistic findings the work includes a novel corpus based analysis of Cameroon English Certain lexical phenomena are explained by the cognitive coding of culture particularly the African cultural model of community which also underlies the self perception of the Anglophones a perspective hitherto neglected in the study of the New Englishes English Composition (paper 1).
