Reading Picture Books with Children Megan Dowd Lambert, 2015-11-03 A new interactive approach to storytime The Whole Book Approach was developed in conjunction with the Eric Carle Museum of Picture Book Art and expert author Megan Dowd Lambert's graduate work in children's literature at Simmons College offering a practical guide for reshaping storytime and getting kids to think with their eyes Traditional storytime often offers a passive experience for kids but the Whole Book approach asks the youngest of readers to ponder all aspects of a picture book and to use their critical thinking skills Using classic examples Megan asks kids to think about why the trim size of Ludwig Bemelman's Madeline is so generous or why the typeset in David Wiesner's Caldecott winner The Three Pigs appears to twist around the page or why books like Chris Van Allsburg's The Polar Express and Eric Carle's The Very Hungry Caterpillar are printed landscape instead of portrait The dynamic discussions that result from this shared reading style range from the profound to the hilarious and will inspire adults to make children's responses to text art and design an essential part of storytime

Selection of the Year's Best Books for Children Child Study Association of America, 1963 Guiding the Reading Process David Booth, 1998 Case studies mini lessons outlines checklists book lists and computer programs to help reading success in the classroom Cf Our choice 1999 2000 Handbook of Modern and Contemporary Japanese Women Writers Rebecca Copeland, 2025-10-01 The Handbook of Modern and Contemporary Japanese Women Writers offers a comprehensive overview of women writers in Japan from the late 19th century to the early 21st Featuring 24 newly written contributions from scholars in the field representing expertise from North America Europe Japan and Australia the Handbook introduces and analyzes works by modern and contemporary women writers that coalesce loosely around common themes tropes and genres Putting writers from different generations in conversation with one another reveals the diverse ways they have responded to similar subjects Whereas women writers may have shared concerns the pressure to conform to gendered expectation the tension between family responsibility and individual interests the quest for self affirmation each writer invents her own approach As readers will see we have writers who turn to memoir and autobiography while others prefer to imagine fabulous fictional worlds Some engage with the literary classics whether Japanese Chinese or European and invest their works with rich intertextual allusions Other writers grapple with colonialism militarism nationalism and industrialization This Handbook builds a foundation which invites readers to launch their own investigations into women's writing in Japan Core Collection for Children and Young Adults Rachel E. Schwedt, Janice DeLong, 2008-09-11 With thousands of new volumes lining the shelves of bookstores abundant advertisements and innumerable online reviews it is becoming increasingly difficult for the concerned adult to recommend literature that is of quality yet speaks to young audiences Core Collection for Children and Young Adults presents the best in contemporary and classic literature for children and young adults Every book listed in this reference has a concisely worded annotation which is followed by headings designating awards the book has won related subjects and character themes With more than 350 titles reviewed this resource will prove invaluable for teachers librarians parents collectors of children s books and college students with an interest in juvenile literature education or child growth and development Booklist Books, a Selection American Library Association, 1922 Uncanny Magazine Issue 13 Neil Gaiman, Paul Cornell, Jennifer Marie Brissett, Brooke Bolander, Alex Bledsoe, Kat Howard, Sofia Samatar, Nalo Hopkinson, 2016-11-01 Literature for Young Adults Joan L. Knickerbocker, 2017-03-15 Young adults are actively looking for anything that connects them with the changes happening in their lives and the books discussed throughout Literature for Young Adults have the potential to make that connection and motivate them to read It explores a great variety of works genres and formats but it places special emphasis on contemporary works whose nontraditional themes protagonists and literary conventions make them well suited to young adult readers It also looks at the ways in which contemporary readers access and share the works they re reading and it shows teachers ways to incorporate nontraditional ways of accessing and sharing books throughout their literature programs In addition to traditional genre chapters Literature for Young Adults includes chapters on literary nonfiction poetry short stories and drama cover art picture books illustrated literature and graphic novels and film It recognizes that while films can be used to complement print literature they are also a literacy format in their own right and one that young adults are particularly familiar and comfortable with The book s discussion of literary language including traditional elements as well as metafictional terms enables readers to share in a literary conversation with their students and others when communicating about books It will help readers teach young adults the language they need to articulate their responses to the books they are reading children's literature in many countries. In addition, the Encyclopedia provides biographies of important writers as well as extensive coverage of illustrators with numerous examples of their work. Sociocultural developments such as the impact of toys, films, animation, the Internet, literacy, libraries, and librarians, censorship, the multicultural expansion of the field, and other issues related to the appreciation and dissemination of children's literature are also addressed. While the Encyclopedia concentrates on the tradition known best by its readership, it also covers the international development of children's literature and offers an unprecedented treatment of works from Australia, Canada, New Zealand, India, Pakistan, African countries, and other nations. Its over 800 distinguished contributors come from around the world and include such renowned scholars and writers as Gillian Avery, Peter Hunt, Klaus Doderer, Hansa Heino Ewers, Jean Perrot, Denise Escarpit, Brian Alderson, and Betsy Gould Hearne. A-Z organization, accessible writing, plentiful illustrations, cross-references, bibliographies, a comprehensive index, and a systematic outline make the Encyclopedia an invaluable and easy-to-use research reference.
