Extensive Survey Project:

The Archaeology of Anatolia Gregory McMahon, Sharon R. Steadman, 2015-10-13 This volume brings together the latest reports on archaeological projects including excavation and survey from all periods and every region of Anatolia It is a forum in which scholars present their most recent data to a global audience allowing for productive engagement with others working in and near Anatolia regarding discoveries and interpretations The series offers a venue where recently concluded projects may provide an overview of results often years ahead of the final publication of complete site reports Published every two years The Archaeology of Anatolia Recent Discoveries series is an invaluable vehicle through which working archaeologists may carry out their most critical task the presentation of their fieldwork and laboratory research in a timely fashion

Documenting Ancient Sagalassos Jeroen Poblome, 2023-10-09 Sagalassos speaks to the imagination in more ways than one The authentic and natural beauty of the site no doubt plays a role in that The Sagalassos Project testifies to the fact that its core business archaeology also appeals to the imagination Learning about the past is fascinating for young and old alike Curiosity unquestionably plays a role in this Archaeologists as any other scientist are driven to really know about past human activities As they leave no stone unturned in their endeavours archaeologists also stimulate the curiosity of society The public at large is not only interested in the results per se but also wants to understand how knowledge about the past comes about This volume gives the word to the archaeologists and other scientists of the Sagalassos Archaeological Research Project They explain their ways methods and concepts as they reconstruct and interpret the past of the archaeological site of Sagalassos and the surrounding study region By bringing testimony to the broader discipline of archaeology this book deserves to be read by scholars and students with an open interest in classical archaeology who wish to re discover some of the basics of the science and process It will also be of interest to professionals involved with archaeologists and the wider interested public

The Kahramanmaraş Valley Survey Elizabeth Carter, 2024-08-01 The volume presents a study of local landscape histories in the Kahramanmara valley a previously understudied but pivotal crossroads along the Syro Anatolian frontier The Holocene vegetation history is presented in relation to climatic changes and human impact through the pollen analytical results of a deep core obtained from a former Sa l k Gavur lakebed Extensive surface surveys carried out in the region between 1993 and 2000 form the basis of the settlement pattern studies beginning with the first permanent settlement of the valley in the Neolithic and ending with the Islamic era The results of an intensive full coverage and transect surveys around Domuztepe are found in Chapter 10 The analysis of a long historical record diverse physical environment and a significant number of archaeological sites are used to outline the myriad ways the ancient residents of this region between Syria and Anatolia made it their home for over seven thousand years
