

A Sleeping Black Boy Poem Analysis

Poem Summary

The poem poignantly portrays a neglected young boy lying face down on the grass beside a bustling city street. His addiction to sniffing glue is evident, and his desperate need for help is symbolized by the overpowering smell emanating from his body. As city life continues around him, the only comfort he finds is in the ambient sounds of nearby water and passing traffic, which serve as a stark contrast to the soothing lullaby a child at home might hear. Despite the visible signs of his distress, passersby choose to ignore him, looking away to avoid confronting his plight. The poem forebodes a grim future for the boy, suggesting he may eventually succumb to his addictions.

Poem

He lay flat, face deep into green grass, the huge jacket covered his head, the heat onto his ears;
he is dirty,
the dirt screams from his flesh like a rotten smell.
He is pinned down by the throbbing footsteps passing by, lullaby is the hiss of the water from the pond and the roaring steel river; and the eyes of adults passing by dart around like bubbles of boiling water.
This small boy will die one day, his lips stuck together, glued by the glue he smokes.
