Chapters Nineteen and Twenty

Standards Focus: Theme

Theme is the central idea in a work of literature. The theme of a piece of literature should not be confused with the subject of the work, but rather, it is a general statement about life or human nature. Most themes are not completely obvious and must be inferred by the reader. The reader must take a good look at the characters, plot, setting, mood, even the title, and how they work together, to understand and recognize the reasons Hurston wrote this particular piece of literature.

Directions: For numbers 1-5, a theme from the novel has been chosen. Find a quote from the text which best illustrates each theme. For numbers 6-10, a quote has been taken directly from the text. Write what additional themes these quotes reveal or suggest. Remember that theme is not a one-word response, but rather, a complete statement of opinion. The chapter number has been given in order for you to look up the reference if necessary.

1. The quest for identity and autonomy is not easy.

Example:

2. Although family and friends may have the best intentions, they should not decide your life's path.

Example:

3. Folk culture and religion is an important aspect of the African-American community.

Example:

4. Everyone, regardless of age, race, or gender has a right to achieve happiness.

Example:

5. Women often have a more difficult time in life because of gender roles and expectations.
