Sept. 2 – Revolution Brings Reform and Terror

1. What were the Rights of Man?
They established a political society, withdrawing citizens from the state.
2. Why did the National Assembly reject the king's proposal?
The king was unable to control events, administrators were harassed, ministers fled the French-occupied provinces, the constitution was rejected.
3. Why did Louis XVI sign the new constitution?
In 1791, he fled with a great entourage, but long economic recession and the Estates-General as the people. Louis had great confidence, possible government. Louis did not believe in the constitution, but he wanted to flee.
4. What government did the Legislative Assembly create?
The new government consisted of representatives and members. The new Legislative Assembly had the power to make laws and set taxes, including the National Assembly.
5. What steps did the government take to improve relations with other governments and Europe?
The government made treaties, secured all the former territories and the new government. The people of France wanted the king to stay and the king and queen fled the country, leaving a power vacuum, resulting in the revolutionary government.
6. How did the Legislative Assembly use rights from other general elections. What were the steps and what groups were?
The Legislative Assembly was made up of three groups: the First Estate (the clergy or church), the Second Estate (the nobles), and the Third Estate (the bourgeoisie). Each group had the same amount of voting power.
7. What were the principal demands?
The revolutionary government was determined to end the king's power. It was a new political system. The demands were to end the king's power, to end the monarchy, and to end the king's power.
8. Why were other European nations concerned about the events taking place in France?
