4 Point Speaking for Academic Purposes Robyn Brinks Lockwood, Keith S. Folse, 2017-03-17 The 4 Point series is designed for English language learners whose primary goal is to succeed in an academic setting Academic English learners need skills based books that focus on reading listening and speaking as well as the two primary language bases of vocabulary and grammar The ultimate goal is to help your students improve these skills and earn a 4.0 GPA The Introduction to English for Academic Purposes EAP level is designed for students in academic programs who need a more general introduction to authentic academic content The discrete skills volumes are designed for programs and courses that want to more intensively focus on key strategies and authentic academic content in one skill area Each 4 Point volume covers academic skills while providing reinforcement and systematic recycling of key vocabulary issues and further exposure to grammar issues. These volumes focus very heavily on vocabulary because language learners know that they are way behind their native speaker counterparts when it comes to vocabulary. Each book highlights key vocabulary items including individual words, compound words, phrasal verbs, short phrases, idioms, metaphors, collocations, and longer set lexical phrases.

Speaking for Academic Purposes is an introductory textbook containing English for Academic Purposes content. Each unit includes activities to strengthen a range of speaking skills, notably understanding classroom discourse using academic language functions, recognizing signal words and phrases, and synthesizing information. These activities are presented within the context of one field of academic study: Architecture, Marketing, Earth Science, U.S. History, Chemistry, and Fine Arts, per unit. Unique to this speaking text are six videos showing common student interactions. Access to the videos is free. Each unit includes three academic speaking strategies, including one specific to making presentations and tasks that involve participating in group discussions, interacting with native speakers, and making a presentation. The goal is to provide students with a variety of strategies and tools to master academic situations in which they need to participate.

Teaching English to Second Language Learners in Academic Contexts Jonathan M. Newton, Dana R. Ferris, Christine C.M. Goh, William Grabe, Fredricka L. Stoller, Larry Vandergrift, 2018-02-07. Teaching English to Second Language Learners in Academic Contexts: Reading, Writing, Listening, and Speaking provides the fundamental knowledge that ESL and EFL teachers need to teach the four language skills. This foundational text, written by internationally renowned experts in the field, explains why skills-based teaching is at the heart of effective instruction in English for academic purposes (EAP) contexts. Each of the four main sections of the book helps readers understand how each skill—reading, writing, listening, and speaking—works and explains what research has to say about successful skill performance. Pedagogically focused chapters apply this information to principles for EAP curriculum design and to instructional activities and tasks adaptable in a wide range of language learning contexts. Options for assessment and the role of digital technologies are considered for each skill, and essential information on integrated skill instruction is provided. Moving from theory to practice, this teacher-friendly text is an essential resource for courses in TESOL programs, for in-service teacher training seminars, and for practicing EAP teachers who want to upgrade their teaching abilities and knowledge bases.

Academic and Occupational English Needs of Tourism and Hotel Management Students. Oral Communication Skills in Focus Yeneneh Wubetu, 2023-03-01 Master's Thesis from the year 2017 in the subject Didactics for the subject English Pedagogy Literature Studies grade 3 97 on a 4 0 scale Haramaya University School of Foreign Languages and Journalism course Teaching English as a Foreign Language language English abstract The purpose of this study was to identify the oral communication skills that Tourism and Hotel Management students THMS at Haramaya University need for their academic and career purposes Particularly this study aimed to assess the value of specific oral communication skills within occupational contexts identify oral communication problems of THMS and explore the communicative events that arise during oral interactions To attain the objectives this research employed cross sectional survey design and explanatory method for data analysis The practitioners questionnaire was distributed to 110 tourism and hospitality guest facing practitioners and THMS n 70 filled in THMS questionnaire A semi structured interview was conducted with 3 subject area lecturers The quantitative data were processed by using SPSS 20 while the qualitative ones were coded based on semantic affinity for analysis. The study revealed that listening skills such as comprehending colloquial and idiomatic expressions, understanding guests' multifarious English accents, recognizing meaning shift because of change in intonation and stress are worthwhile for THMS prospective careers in tourism and hospitality sector. Effective communication with guests on the phone, clear and direct speech interpretation without meaning distortion and appropriate responses to guests' requests and complaints were found to be equally important speaking skills. Similarly, eye contact, facial expressions, gesture, tone and pitch volume were found to be the salient non-verbal communication behaviors that should comply with the communicative contexts during oral interactions. The research indicated that most THMS lacked spoken production skills, spoken interaction skills and nonverbal communication skills. It also showed that the communicative events that arise during oral communication in occupational and academic contexts require THMS to have good command of oral proficiency. Therefore, it can be concluded that THMS current oral proficiency may adversely affect their academic performance and employability skills. Based on the findings, the researcher recommends oral communication trainings that can enhance THMS academic involvements and employability skills and the inclusion of oral communication courses in THM curriculum for prospective use.

Concise Encyclopedia of Pragmatics Jacob Mey, 1998 Hardbound
Among the recent developments in the language sciences, the coming of age of the field of pragmatics and its official inauguration in the mid seventies stand out as some of the most significant ones. The present work endeavours to sum up the development of the youngest offspring of linguistics in a number of conscientiously chosen well elaborated concepts that may be said to characterize both the discipline and its most famous practitioners. The increasingly complex notions and devices developed by linguists to cope with the description of naturally occurring language phenomena have been joined with techniques and approaches due to the socially oriented schools of thought that see language first of all as a means of communication between human users. Based on the highly acclaimed and award winning Encyclopedia of Language and Linguistics this volume provides a collection of articles throughout which the vast scope of the field of pra
