littered with associations with food whether it is desired rejected admired loathed envied disdained from the status of haute cuisine and the restaurants and chefs associated with it to contemporary concerns about food poverty and food waste to dietary habits and the politicisation of food and at every level in between However thinking about the place of the French restaurant in London restaurant and food culture over a long time span in many and varied places and spaces in the capital creates a more nuanced picture than that which may at first seem obvious
