

5 Tips to Perfect Your Public Speaking Skills

Public speaking doesn't need to be scary! With these five easy tips, you can perfect your public speaking skills, and make sure you deliver a solid speech the next time you go up on stage!

1

Maintain Eye Contact

This makes audience members feel like they are having a conversation with you, and also makes them more likely to pay attention to what you are saying!

Use your arms and hands

2

People are more likely to remember concepts if they are associated with particular actions or movements.

3

Smile

This will make your audience a lot more comfortable and relaxed.

Walk around

4

Walk towards your audience; people tend to participate more when they have proximity to a speaker.

5

Encourage participation

Ask questions. This will make the speech more engaging, memorable, and fun!

Handbook of Veterinary Communication Skills Carol Gray, Jenny Moffett, 2013-05-23
This is the first definitive textbook on veterinary communication written specifically for students and veterinary professionals by a group of international experts. Communication is a core clinical skill and is now taught as a compulsory part of most veterinary degree courses. Good communication is crucial to the veterinarian-client-patient relationship, to patient health, and ultimately to the success of any veterinary business. The book covers all the key areas of communication, including the basic framework for the veterinary consultation, professional, ethical, and legal aspects, communication with clients and colleagues, and coping with end-of-life and other difficult situations. It combines the most up-to-date research with a wealth of practical information, such as real-life case studies to help you apply your learning to real scenarios, simple step-by-step guidelines showing you how to deal with specific situations, examples of written resources you can use in practice. This valuable textbook has been written and edited by a carefully chosen group of specialists, comprising veterinary communication lecturers, veterinary practitioners, training managers, and counsellors.
