Russell, 2016-05-19 This very readable brief guide examines a wide range of spiritual writing that can be read for enjoyment or inspiration including some books that come from beyond any religious tradition While written from within the Christian tradition and offering introductions to the writings of medieval mystics Quakers and modern evangelists both Protestant and Catholic it also looks at classics of secular spirituality and writings from different religious traditions Each book is explained to convey a brief idea of what each one has to offer the interested reader while a Speed Read for each book delivers a quick sense of what each writer is like to read and a highly compressed summary of the main points of the book in question This is an excellent reference to dip into but within sections such as Early Christian Classics Secular Texts Lives of Inspiration and Alternative Approaches the books are arranged chronologically revealing some interesting juxtapositions and connections between them Garden of the Soul Mark Mah, 2014-03-13 The stories of Jesus placed in the context of the familiar and factual are filled with metaphors that audiences can understand and appreciate Metaphors not only inform and persuade but also fire up readers imaginations and get them involved as participants Humans are primed to think and feel metaphorically and so Garden of the Soul aims to metaphorically explore five landscapes that feature prominently in the Bible Each metaphorical landscape throws light on an aspect of spiritual life The bountiful garden speaks of growth the flowing river calls for unceasing prayer the raging sea mirrors the turbulence of a journey of faith the barren desert transforms by emptying life s clutter and the high mountain challenges readers to scale its
