Self-Help That Works John C. Norcross Ph.D., Linda F. Campbell Ph.D., John M. Grohol PsyD, John W. Santrock Ph.D., Florin Selagea M.S., Robert Sommer Ph.D., 2013-03-05 Self help is big business but alas not always a scientific one Self help books websites and movies abound and are important sources of psychological advice for millions of Americans But how can you sift through them to find the ones that work Self Help That Works is an indispensable guide that enables readers to identify effective self help materials and distinguish them from those that are potentially misleading or even harmful Six scientist practitioners bring careful research expertise and a dozen national studies to the task of choosing and recommending self help resources Designed for both laypersons and mental health professionals this book critically reviews multiple types of self help resources from books and autobiographies to films online programs support groups and websites for 41 different behavioral disorders and life challenges The revised edition of this award winning book now features online self help resources expanded content and new chapters focusing on autism bullying chronic pain GLB issues happiness and nonchemical addictions Each chapter updates the self help resources launched since the previous edition and expands the material The final chapters provide key strategies for consumers evaluating self help as well as for professionals integrating self help into treatment All told this updated edition of Self Help that Works evaluates more than 2 000 self help resources and brings together the collective wisdom of nearly 5 000 mental health professionals Whether seeking self help for yourself loved ones or patients this is the go to research based guide with the best advice on what works

Making Sense of Life Rich Patterson, PhD, 2017-11-22 Teenagers often turn to their peers to ask for advice but have no idea how to put it into practice Advice seems easy to come by but hard to fit into an exact situation Making Sense of Life A Guidebook for Teens and Parents uses real life situations and personal stories to help guide teens toward asking the right questions and making the best decisions for every circumstance Teens will learn how to Create a journal that gives much needed perspective on frustration and anger Avoid the self perpetuating cycle of low self esteem and low productivity Communicate better with parents and help guide their own parents to communicate more effectively with them Using activities writing prompts and list making tools Making Sense of Life shares the secrets to working together rather than in opposition as parent and teen Each chapter concludes with key thoughts for both parent and teen to build their knowledge base with real world applications This practical guide full of life changing insights will help navigate the complexities of social expectations family relationships and most importantly understanding oneself
