Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Anna H. Perrault Ph.D.,Elizabeth S. Aversa,Sonia Ramírez Wohlmuth,Cynthia J. Miller,Cynthia F. Miller,2012-12-10 This familiar guide to information resources in the humanities and the arts organized by subjects and emphasizing electronic resources enables librarians teachers and students to quickly find the best resources for their diverse needs Authoritative trusted and timely Information Resources in the Humanities and the Arts Sixth Edition introduces new librarians to the breadth of humanities collections experienced librarians to the nature of humanities scholarship and the scholars themselves to a wealth of information they might otherwise have missed This new version of a classic resource the first update in over a decade has been refreshed to account for the myriad of digital resources that have rewritten the rules of the reference and research world and been expanded to include significantly increased coverage of world literature and languages This book is invaluable for a wide variety of users librarians in academic public school and special library settings researchers in religion philosophy literature and the performing and visual arts graduate students in library and information science and teachers and students in humanities the arts and interdisciplinary degree programs Re-writing Pasts, Imagining Futures Gomia, Victor N.,Ndi, Gilbert Shang,2018-02-20 The papers in this volume focus on fiction and theatre in their traditional forms as well as in their encounters with novel and innovative forms and avenues of dissemination As a cultural practice that emerged from a process of protest and contestation of hegemony it is understandable that one main concern in African literature and literary criticism is the resistance against the emergence of marginalizing centers in formerly or currently marginalized societies with regard to discourses aesthetics and media of creation These new centers that sometimes undermine the strategic tactical exploitation of the relative advantage procured by each medium run the risk of leading to new forms of stratification that mitigate the import of African and African diasporic literatures The collection of essays therefore seeks to analyze the representation of pertinent socio political and historical questions in a variety of postcolonial texts from Africa and the African diasporas notably the Caribbean islands and the United States of America However far from re writing of history in a way that cedes to conservative worldviews creative writers and critics simultaneously attempt to chart ways forward for socially all inclusive futures In the context of colonial and neo colonial legacies that seem to forestall any sense of individual and collective self fulfillment contributors to this volume examine the pertinence of African fiction and theatre in imagining new vistas of re conceptualizing the postcolonial condition in ways that re galvanize the belief in an enabling future
