Subcommittee on Immigration and Refugee Affairs, 1987 Official Report of the ... American Tyler Family Reunion ... Tyler Family Association, 1897 Amplifying that Still, Small Voice Frank Brennan, 2015-04-01 Frank Brennan has been a long time advocate for human rights and social justice in Australia This collection of essays brings together some of his major addresses and writings on justice in the Catholic Church and in Australian society Placing the individual's formed and informed conscience as the centre piece in any work for justice he surveys recent developments in the Catholic Church including the handling of child sexual abuse claims and the uplifting effect of the papacy of Francis the first Jesuit pope He then applies Catholic social teaching and the jurisprudence of human rights to contested issues like the separation of powers and the right of religious freedom and to the claims of diverse groups including Aborigines asylum seekers the dying and same sex couples At every step he is there in the public square amplifying that still small voice of conscience especially the voice of those who are marginalised

Return to Sender Karsten Paerregaard, 2015-01-30 Return to Sender is an anthropological account of how Peruvian emigrants raise and remit money and what that activity means for themselves and for their home communities The book draws on first hand ethnographic data from North and South America Europe and Japan to describe how Peruvians remit to relatives at home collectively raise money to organize development projects in their regions of origin and invest savings in business and other activities Karsten Paerregaard challenges unqualified approval of remittances as beneficial resources of development for home communities and important income for home countries He finds a more complex situation in which remittances can also create dependency and deprivation
