Discourse in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Christiane Dalton-Puffer, 2007 The label CLIL stands for classrooms where a foreign language English is used as a medium of instruction in content subjects This book provides a first in depth analysis of the kind of communicative abilities which are embodied in such CLIL classrooms It examines teacher and student talk at secondary school level from different discourse analytic angles taking into account the interpersonal pragmatics of classroom discourse and how school subjects are talked into being during lessons The analysis shows how CLIL classroom interaction is strongly shaped by its institutional context which in turn conditions the ways in which students experience use and learn the target language The research presented here suggests that CLIL programmes require more explicit language learning goals in order to fully exploit their potential for furthering the learners appropriation of a foreign language as a medium of learning

The Roles of Language in CLIL Ana Llinares, Tom Morton, Rachel Whittaker, 2012-03-15 This book provides a theoretically based approach to the integration of language and content in primary and secondary contexts Drawing on their wide experience as CLIL educators and researchers the authors explore data collected in real CLIL classrooms from two interrelated perspectives the CLIL classroom as an interactional context for developing language and content and the genres and registers through which the meanings of the different academic subjects are enacted From the analysis of this corpus of data the authors provide a rich description of how CLIL students language works and may be expected to develop Also available separately as a hardback

Applied Linguistics Perspectives on CLIL Ana Llinares, Tom Morton, 2017-03-16 This book represents the first collection of studies on Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL which brings together a range of perspectives through which CLIL has been investigated within Applied Linguistics The book aims to show how the four perspectives of Second Language Acquisition SLA Systemic Functional Linguistics SFL Discourse Analysis and Sociolinguistics highlight different important aspects of CLIL as a context for second language development Each of the four sections in the book opens with an overview of one of the perspectives written by a leading scholar in the field and is then followed by three empirical studies which focus on specific aspects of CLIL seen from this perspective Topics covered include motivation the use of tasks pragmatic development speech functions in spoken interaction the use of evaluative language in expressing content knowledge in writing multimodal interaction assessment for learning L1 use in the classroom English medium instruction in universities and CLIL teachers professional identities Assessment and Learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning (CLIL) Classrooms Mark deBoer, Dmitri Leontjev, 2020-11-17 This volume builds a conceptual basis for assessment promoting learning in Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL classrooms and proposes practical assessment approaches and activities that CLIL teachers can apply in the classroom CLIL as an educational context is unique as language and content learning happen simultaneously The efficacy of such instruction has been studied extensively but assessment in CLIL classrooms has drawn much less attention The present volume aims to fill this gap Arranged based on different ways that content and language are integrated in CLIL the chapters in this book together build a solid theoretical basis for assessment promoting learning in CLIL classrooms The authors discuss how assessment eliciting this integration yields insights into learners abilities but more importantly how these insights are used to promote learning The contributors to the volume together build the understanding of classroom based assessment as cyclic of teaching learning and assessment as inter related and of content and language in CLIL classrooms as a dialectical unity This volume will spark interest in and discussion of classroom based assessment in CLIL among CLIL educators and researchers enable reflection of classroom assessment practices and foster collaboration between CLIL teachers and researchers The assessment approaches and activities discussed in the volume in turn will help educators understand the scope of applications of assessment and inspire them to adapt these to their own classrooms The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics Martha Bigelow, Johanna Ennser-Kananen, 2014-08-13 The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics provides a comprehensive survey of the core and current language related issues in educational contexts Bringing together the expertise and voices of well established as well as emerging scholars from around the world the handbook offers over thirty authoritative and critical explorations of methodologies and contexts of educational linguistics issues of instruction and assessment and teacher education as well as coverage of key topics such as advocacy critical pedagogy and ethics and politics of research in educational linguistics Each chapter relates to key issues raised in the respective topic providing additional historical background critical discussion reviews of pertinent research methods and an assessment of what the future might hold This volume embraces multiple dynamic perspectives and a range of voices in order to move forward in new and productive directions making The Routledge Handbook of Educational Linguistics an essential volume for any student and researcher interested in the issues surrounding language and education particularly in multilingual and multicultural settings

Content and Language Integrated Learning Yolanda Ruiz de Zarobe, 2017-10-02 This book explores some of the recent research undertaken on Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL It offers an overview of several European contexts describing experiences that could be extrapolated to many other communities worldwide Contributions focus on issues related to language policy moving from high level policymaking to grassroots decisions but all of them encompassing the major changes that can be recognized in education which also evidence the shifts in society and economic life that have taken place in Europe in the last decades These changes in language policy issues are coupled with changes in CLIL practice in the classroom These national initiatives are displayed across a wide range of educational perspectives portraying the diversity that is a distinctive feature of CLIL in the European educational mosaic By providing new insights into pedagogic methodological and language policy issues in CLIL and by covering some areas which have been insufficiently addressed in the literature such as the implementation of CLIL in less successful contexts or learner teacher collaboration in the classroom this book will be of great value to researchers stakeholders and professionals interested in CLIL and language education This book was originally published as a special issue of the International Journal of Bilingual Education and Bilingualism

Bilingual and Multilingual Education in the 21st Century Christian Abello-Contesse, Paul M. Chandler, María Dolores López-Jiménez, Rubén Chacón-Beltrán, 2013-10-30 Bilingual education is one of the fastest growing disciplines within applied linguistics This book includes the work of 20 specialists working in various educational contexts across Europe Latin America and North America to create a volume which is both comprehensive in scope and multidimensional in its coverage of current bilingual initiatives The central themes of this volume which draws on past experiences of bilingual education include issues in language use in classrooms at elementary secondary and tertiary levels participant perspectives on bilingual education experiences and the language needs of bi and multilingual students in monolingual schools This collection will be of interest to teachers and administrators in bi and multilingual education programs as well as scholars working in the field of language education

Teaching and Learning English through Bilingual Education Juan de Dios Martínez Agudo, 2012-01-24 These days numerous studies document and advocate the potential effectiveness of the CLIL approach which is viewed as a real revolution in second language pedagogy European bilingual education models are currently exemplified by CLIL Content and Language Integrated Learning a new generic and or umbrella term for bilingual education which has been rapidly spreading throughout Europe since the mid nineties Over the last decade there has been an explosion of interest in CLIL pedagogy in Europe and beyond However CLIL pedagogy also involves complex challenges concerning its implementation and the professional development of teachers This publication provides readers with a collection of original papers covering essential aspects of CLIL pedagogy This collection of papers serves as a good indication that valuable research is being conducted throughout Europe and that CLIL research is establishing itself as an important area of applied linguistics This book is mainly addressed to those in service teachers who teach in bilingual classrooms anywhere in the world under any circumstances and who wish to know more about CLIL pedagogy It can also be used as a helpful handbook for EFL student teachers The book is also for teacher trainers running both pre service and in service courses

Teaching Language and Content in Multicultural and Multilingual Classrooms María Luisa Carrió-Pastor, Begoña Bellés Fortuño, 2020-12-18 This edited book explores critical issues relating to Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL and English as a Medium of Instruction EMI setting out their similarities and differences to demystify the terms and their implications for classroom practice The authors show how CLIL and EMI practices are carried out in different institutional contexts and demonstrate how both approaches can benefit language and content acquisition This book is addressed to second foreign language teaching staff involved in teaching in English at primary education secondary education and higher education levels

Content and Language Integrated Learning Yolanda Ruiz de Zarobe, Rosa María Jiménez Catalán, 2009-05-11 This book contributes to the growth of interest in Content and Language Integrated Learning CLIL an approach to second foreign language learning that requires the use of the target language to learn content Within the framework of European strategies to promote multilingualism CLIL has begun to be used extensively in a variety of language learning contexts and at different educational systems and language programmes This book brings together critical analyses on theoretical and implementation issues of Content and Language Integrated Learning and empirical studies on the effectiveness of this type of instruction on learners language competence The basic theoretical assumption behind this book is that through successful use of the language to learn content learners will develop their language proficiency more effectively while they learn the academic content specified in the curricula

English-Medium Instruction in Chinese Universities Jing Zhao, L. Quentin Dixon, 2017-03-27 This edited book is about the rationale practice and classroom implementation of English medium instruction courses in Chinese universities It specifically focuses on classroom discourse analysis across different disciplines and settings The main themes of this book are describing the state educational policies toward English medium instruction at the tertiary level distinguishing English medium instruction from mainstream foreign language learning analyzing curricula and discourse at the classroom level and evaluating the learning effectiveness of these courses This book covers the widespread implementation of English medium courses in China across different disciplines and it provides a window for researchers and practitioners from other parts of the world to see the curriculum design lesson planning discourse features and teacher student interaction in English medium classrooms in China Contributors to this volume consists of a panel of highly respected researchers in the fields of bilingual education English medium instruction classroom discourse analysis and language program evaluation Chapters include Balance of Content and Language in English Medium Instruction Classrooms English Medium Instruction in a Math Classroom An Observation Study of Classroom Discourse Asking and answering questions in EMI classrooms What is the Cognitive and Syntactic Complexity Level

Input in English-Medium Instruction Francesca Costa,Cristina Mariotti,2023-03-07 This edited book investigates the input provided by lecturers in English Medium Instruction EMI to reveal the characteristics of both written and oral inputs in EMI settings and their pedagogical implications The book works on two assumptions firstly that field exposure to input is the prime mover of the teaching learning process and secondly that its quality is fundamental for the development of discipline specific knowledge with particular reference to university settings The volume is timely as it contains original research addressing both theoretical reflections and practical information on how content lecturers can enhance the effectiveness of their teaching practice through English including a relatively unexplored and increasingly relevant topic represented by the synergy between spoken input and written and multimodal materials Moreover it provides insight for EAP teachers and EMI training professionals into how lecturer training programmes and activities can be improved by focusing on communicative functions and presentation strategies that can selectively address and improve students mastery of disciplinary discourse

Discourse and language learning across L2 instructional settings, 2012-01-01 Studies on discourse and language learning originated in the field of general education and they focused on first language learning environments However since 1980s research on discourse and language learning broadened the scope of investigation to respond to second and foreign language environments Recently the emergence of new language learning contexts such as computer mediated communication multilingual settings or content and language integrated contexts requires further research that focuses on discourse and language learning From this perspective the present volume aims to broaden the scope of investigation in foreign language contexts by exploring discourse patterns in the classroom and examining the impact of factors such as gender explicitness of feedback or L1 use on language learning through discourse With that aim in mind this volume will bring together research that investigates discourse in various instructional settings namely those of primary secondary and university L2 learning environments content and language integrated contexts and other new language learning settings The number and variety of languages involved both as the first language e g English Finnish Basque Spanish Japanese French Italian Catalan as well as the target foreign language e g English French Italian Japanese Spanish makes the volume specially attractive Additionally the different approaches adopted by the researchers participating in this volume such as information processing sociocultural theory or conversation analysis widen the realm of investigation on discourse and language learning Finally the strength of the volume also lies in the range of educational settings primary secondary and tertiary education and the worldwide representation of contributors across seven different countries namely those of Spain France Austria Finland Germany Canada Australia and the United States The uniqueness of the volume is due to its eclectic and comprehensive nature in tackling instructional discourse Worldwide outstanding researchers like Julianne House Carme Mu oz Ute Smit Tarja Nikula or Roy Lyster to quote but a few adopt different perspectives in this joint contribution that will certainly broaden the scope of research on language learners discourse

CLIL Do Coyle, Philip Hood, David Marsh, 2010-04-01 CLIL Content and Language Integrated Learning has emerged since the millennium as a major trend in education Written by Do Coyle Philip Hood and David Marsh and drawing on their experience of CLIL in secondary schools primary schools and English language schools across Europe this book gives a comprehensive overview of CLIL It summarises the theory which underpins the teaching of a content subject through another language and discusses its practical application outlining the key directions for the development of research and practice This book acknowledges the uncertainty many teachers feel about CLIL because of the requirement for both language and subject knowledge while providing theoretical and practical routes towards successful practice for all
