Herbert Grabes,2009 Eternal Life? Hans Küng,2003-04-07 The fact cannot be overlooked that we are in the midst of a sociological crisis of orientation on the grand scale New problems and needs have become insistent new fears and longings have come to light Many are looking for a new foothold a fundamental certainty a compass for their life and the life of other human beings The inconsistencies and ambivalence of the phenomena cannot conceal the fact that religion is attracting greater attention the old religion and many new ones the Christian religion as well as the Islamic Hindu and Buddhist religions In East and West anyway the God Progress seems to have lost rapidly something of its credibility belief in a continually better life with the aid of science and technology and also through revolution and socialism has been shaken by serious doubts And while the elderly have not been able with all the aids of psychology to come to terms with the meaning of death younger people supposedly a no future generation apathetic noncommittal nervous and self destructive are asking afresh about the missing sense of life Meanwhile though science did the most in the last century to destroy belief in immortality and made stupendous efforts to prolong life it is medicine today that has broken through the taboos in regard to death and with its research into dying has given new life to the question of death and survival But has medicine or perhaps parapsychology proved that there is life after death Postcolonial Studies Oriana Palusci,2006 Daily Report ,1992

Lovers and Knowers Ulf Schulenberg,2007 Lovers and Knowers discusses the development of the American cultural Left in the twentieth century Seeking to contribute to the discussion of the relation between American Studies and the field of theory the book focuses on the analysis of a specific theoretical problem It attempts to elucidate the multilayered complexity of the relation between antifoundationalists and foundationalists antitheorists and theorists and liberal ironists and metaphysicians Proposing the idea of an antifoundationalist and antiessentialist worldly and oppositional criticism the study argues that it is possible to develop a postmetaphysical thinking whose notion of the political and whose understanding of the function of literary and cultural criticism clearly differ from those suggested by neopragmatists such as Richard Rorty and Stanley Fish It is demonstrated that Cornel West s leftist version of neopragmatism striving for consequences of theory in history ought to be regarded as an oppositional and worldly criticism in the Saidian sense which dialectically uses the insights of neo pragmatist antifoundationalism The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells,2007
