Nile Valley Contributions to Civilization Anthony Tony Browder,1992 Nile Valley Contributions to Civilization Anthony Tyrone Browder,1998 Nile Valley Contributions to Civilization Anthony Tony Browder,Anthony Tyrone Browder,1992 The civilization of Egypt and of Africa in general is the most written about and the least understood of all known subjects This is not an accident of an error in misunderstanding the available information Nile Valley Contributions to Civilization Anthony T. Browder,1994 The SAGE Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America Mwalimu J. Shujaa,Kenya J. Shujaa,2015-07-13 The Encyclopedia of African Cultural Heritage in North America provides an accessible ready reference on the retention and continuity of African culture within the United States Our conceptual framework holds first that culture is a form of self knowledge and knowledge about self in the world as transmitted from one person to another Second that African people continuously create their own cultural history as they move through time and space Third that African descended people living outside of Africa are also contributors to and participate in the creation of African cultural history Entries focus on illuminating Africanisms cultural retentions traceable to an African origin and cultural continuities ongoing practices and processes through which African culture continues to be created and formed Thus the focus is more culturally specific and less concerned with the broader transatlantic demographic political and geographic issues that are the focus of similar recent reference works We also focus less on biographies of individuals and political and economic ties and more on processes and manifestations of African cultural heritage and continuity FEATURES A two volume A to Z work available in a choice of print or electronic formats 350 signed entries each concluding with Cross references and Further Readings 150 figures and photos Front matter consisting of an Introduction and a Reader s Guide organizing entries thematically to more easily guide users to related entries Signed articles concluding with cross references Yemoja Solimar Otero,Toyin Falola,2013-11-01 Finalist for the 2014 Albert J Raboteau Prize for the Best Book in Africana Religions presented by the Journal of Africana Religions This is the first collection of essays to analyze intersectional religious and cultural practices surrounding the deity Yemoja In Afro Atlantic traditions Yemoja is associated with motherhood women the arts and the family This book reveals how Yemoja traditions are negotiating gender sexuality and cultural identities in bold ways that emphasize the shifting beliefs and cultural practices of contemporary times Contributors come from a wide range of fields religious studies art history literature and anthropology and focus on the central concern of how different religious communities explore issues of race gender and sexuality through religious practice and discourse The volume adds the voices of religious practitioners and artists to those of scholars to engage in conversations about how Latino a and African diaspora religions respond creatively to a history of colonization Trauma and Mental Health Social Work With Urban Populations Rhonda Wells-Wilbon,Anthony Estreet,2021-12-30 Addressing the social problems associated with trauma and mental health amongst African Americans in urban environments this book uses an African centered lens to critique the most common practice models and interventions currently employed by social workers in the field Divided into four parts and grounded in traditional African cultural values it argues that basic key values in a new clinical model for mental health diagnosis are A spiritual component Collective group approach Focus on wholeness Oneness with Nature Emphasis on truth justice balance harmony reciprocity righteousness and order Being free from racism sexism classism and other forms of oppression this African centered approach is crucial for working with people of African origin who experience daily trauma through adverse living conditions This book will be key reading on any practice and direct service course at both BSW and MSW level and will be a useful supplement on clinical courses as well as those aimed at working with diverse populations and those living in urban environments

Reading Du Bois Aaron X. Smith, Molefi Kete Asante, 2025-05-01 A clear critical accessible and ultimately hopeful discovery voyage through the seas of Du Bois's language and ideas Offering a vision both hopeful and thoughtful Reading Du Bois is an Afrocentric reexamination of the work of one of the most important intellectuals of our time Du Bois wanted to solve the issue of race dividing American society Aaron X Smith and Molefi Kete Asante take one of Du Bois's key concepts the idea that the problem of his century was going to be the color line and demonstrate that such a reader of that concept provides fresh insights into our present interpersonal and political situation The application of Du Bois's concept such as the color line reveals the subject place of African American people is not merely a marginal space but rather a central space to all who seek to bring justice democracy and optimism

From the Browder File Anthony Tyrone Browder, 1989

Contemporary Africa's Growth and Development Agyemang Attah-Poku, 2012-12-14 This book examines the various factors that have influenced the growth and development process of contemporary Africa After discussing and weighing the schools of thought that have attempted to explain the paradox of Africa's reduced growth and development in the midst of abundant resources this volume comes up with comprehensive and detailed suggestions and recommendations to address this painful experience This book consistently states that the average Africans forming the overwhelming majority of the African population are the least if at all to be blamed for the paradox but rather the African leadership and its external cronies are to be fully blamed Contemporary Africa's Growth and Development seeks a solution to the African growth and development puzzle in proper allocation and oversight of resources vision perseverance courage corruption free and good governance as well as concrete provable solid and genuine unity

Kush, the Jewel of Nubia Miriam Ma'at-Ka-Re Monges, 1997 The great Cheikh Anta Diop gave African culture roots from which one can trace the branches No African researcher since however has provided a comprehensive analysis connecting the ancient Nile Valley civilization with the African cultural universe From the pyramids of Egypt to the great walls of Zimbabwe Western scholars have attributed the achievements of these prodigious indigenous African civilizations to people culturally and geographically alien to Africa In the case of the ancient Nubian empire of Kush however which occupied the southern part of Kemet ancient Egypt and all of present day Sudan one expects reasonable scholars to attribute this African culture to an African people Sadly however the dogmatic eurocentric Hegelian analysis of Africa is still alive and well in even the most current research on Nubia and Kush It is up to African scholars to reconstruct Kushite history using an Afrocentric approach in order to shed light on this vital part of our African heritage The present much needed work traces Diop s great African cultural commonalities of matriarchy totemism divine kingship and cosmogony to the very core of Kushite culture This work represents the cutting edge of a new generation of Afrocentric scholarship whose mandate it is to provide a clearer picture of Africa s true nature and of its genuine contribution to World Civilization Survival Strategies for Africans in America Anthony T.
