Socioemotional Development in the Toddler Years Celia A. Brownell, Claire B. Kopp, 2007-08-16 This volume explores the key developmental transitions that take place as 1 to 3 year olds leave infancy behind and begin to develop the social and emotional knowledge skills and regulatory abilities of early childhood Leading investigators examine the multiple interacting factors that lead to socioemotional competence in this pivotal period covering both typical and atypical development Presented is innovative research that has yielded compelling insights into toddlers relationships emotions play communication prosocial behavior self control autonomy and attempts to understand themselves and others The final chapter presents a systematic framework for socioemotional assessment

Best Reference Books, 1986-1990 G. Kim Dority, Bohdan S. Wynar, 1992 Aiming to be useful for identifying gaps in core reference collections for filling out a particular subject area for determining what to weed out and what to keep and for checking for new editions and related materials this bibliography should be a handy reference for all information professionals seeking to build up a quality reference collection Approximately 1 000 entries have been culled from the more than 8 500 entries appearing in ARBA 1987 1991 covering reference titles with imprints of 1986 1990 Titles have been chosen on the basis of their usefulness to practising librarians The lengthy reviews have been updated and in some instances completely rewritten to reflect new editions with expanded coverage additional citations to published reviews and price changes

The Stories Children Tell Susan Engel, 1995-01-15 Whether presenting their versions of real events or making up tales of adventure and discovery children enchant us with their stories But the value of those stories goes beyond their charm Storytelling is an essential form through which children interpret their own experiences and communicate their view of the world Each narrative presented by a child is a brushstroke on an evolving self portrait a self portrait the child can reflect on refer to and revise In The Stories Children Tell developmental psychologist Susan Engel examines the methods and meanings of children's narratives She offers a fascinating look at one of the most exciting areas in modern psychology and education What is really going on when a child tells or writes a story Engel's insights into this provocative question are drawn from the latest research findings and dozens of actual children's tales compelling funny sometimes disturbing stories often of unexpected richness and beauty In The Stories Children Tell Susan Engel examines the different functions of storytelling the way the storytelling process changes as children develop the contributions of parents and peers to storytelling the different types of stories children tell the development of a child's narrative voice the best way of nurturing a child's storytelling skills Throughout these discussions

Engel presents compelling evidence for what is perhaps her most intriguing idea that in constructing stories children are constructing themselves
