Quinn, 1982 Learn to Read Latin Andrew Keller, Stephanie Russell, 2015-01-01 One of the most popular Latin texts on the market Learn to Read Latin helps high school and college students acquire the skills to read and appreciate the great works of Latin literature It not only presents basic Latin morphology and syntax with clear explanations and examples but also offers direct access to original unaltered Latin texts As beginning students learn basic forms and grammar they also gain familiarity with patterns of Latin word order and other features of style This second edition which now combines the first and second parts into a single textbook improves upon an already strong foundation by streamlining grammatical explanations increasing the number of syntax and morphology drills and offering additional short and longer readings in Latin prose and poetry From Phenomenology to Thought, Errancy, and Desire B.E. Babich, 2013-04-17 For both continental and analytic styles of philosophy the thought of Martin Heidegger must be counted as one of the most important influences in contemporary philosophy In this book essays by internationally noted scholars ranging from David B Allison to Slavoj Zizek honour the interpretive contributions of William J Richardson s pathbreaking Heidegger Through Phenomenology to Thought The essays move from traditional phenomenology to the idea of essential another thinking the questions of translation and existential expressions of the turn of Heidegger s thought the intersection of politics and language the philosophic significance of Jacques Lacan and several essays on science and technology All show the influence of Richardson s first study A valuable emphasis appears in Richardson s interpretation of Heidegger s conception of die Irre interpreted as Errancy set in its current locus in a discussion of Heidegger s debacle with the political in his involvement with National Socialism Provocation and Negotiation. Gesche Ipsen, Timothy Mathews, Dragana Obradovic, 2013 This collection of essays takes on two of the most pressing questions that face the discipline of Comparative Literature today Why compare and Where do we go from here At a difficult economic time when universities all over the world once again have to justify the social as well as academic value of their work it is crucial that we consider the function of comparison itself in reaching across disciplinary and cultural boundaries The essays written for this book are by researchers from all over the world and range in topic from the problem of translating biblical Hebrew to modern atheism from Freud to Marlene van Niekerk from the formation of one person s identity to experiences of globalisation and the relation of history to fiction Together they display the ground breaking ideas which lie at the heart of an act as deceptively simple as comparing one piece of writing to another Nietzsche and Embodiment Kristen Brown Golden, 2012-02-01 In Nietzsche and Embodiment Kristen Brown reveals the smartness of bodies challenging the traditional view in the West that bodies are separate from and morally inferior to minds Drawing inspiration from Nietzsche Brown vividly describes why the interdependence of mind and body matters both in Nietzsche's writings and for contemporary debates on dualism theory Merleau-Ponty criticism and metaphor studies activities spinal cord research and fasting and specific human experiences senses trauma and guilt Brown's theories about the dynamic relationship between body and mind provide new possibilities for self-understanding and experience Paul Decentered Arminta M. Fox, 2019-12-02 This book argues that the presence of women in the Christ communities of first-century Corinth changes how 2 Corinthians should be interpreted Using a feminist approach to interpret the text Arminta M. Fox presents readings that are ethically and historically viable She examines how questions of community identity and leadership are situated within broader discourses of power in the Roman imperial and patriarchal contexts of the first-century Mediterranean world By assuming the dialogical presence of strong and diverse women leaders in the community Fox develops counter-readings to ones that assume Paul's singular authority Strategies in Teaching Greek and Latin Floyd L.
