Nonconformist Perspectives on Animals and Language Philip J. Sampson, 2026-02-09 This book explores how seventeenth century nonconformist Christian discourse gave animals a voice in public life challenging dominant anthropocentric narratives Drawing on historical theological and ethical perspectives Philip J Sampson traces a subjugated language of resistance that once shaped institutions such as the RSPCA and continues to offer incisive critiques of contemporary practices including hunting warfare animal experimentation and meat consumption Envisioning creation as song the book reimagines human animal relations as co creative and mutually vulnerable offering a compelling alternative to both instrumentalist and zoocentric frameworks Engaging with biblical texts and historical voices Sampson uncovers a rich tradition of animal advocacy rooted in kindness sacrifice and restoration This interdisciplinary study will appeal to scholars and students in animal ethics theology religious studies and early modern history as well as practitioners and advocates seeking new ethical resources for contemporary debates
