The laptop screen displays a digital reading assessment. The title is "The Life and Times of the Ant". Below the title, there are several colorful illustrations of ants. The main section is titled "COMPREHENSION" and contains a "COMPREHENSION READING TEST" for "The Life and Times of the Ant". The test includes a "COMPREHENSION" section with multiple-choice questions. The first question asks, "How do you know the genre for this selection is informational text?" with four options: "It has a title", "It has a main idea", "It has a main purpose", and "It has a main character". The second question asks, "Each section includes a heading, what is the purpose of the heading?" with three options: "The heading identifies the main idea", "The heading identifies the main character", and "The heading identifies the main purpose".
