Gothic Fantasy Blueprint:

Lesbian Gothic Paulina Palmer, 1999 Tracing the growth of lesbian Gothic fiction over the 25 years since the advent of the Women's Movement and Gay Liberation in the 1970s this text discusses a wide selection of novels and stories contextualizing and re-evaluating them in the light of changing currents in lesbian queer culture and politics The figure of the lesbian frequently portrayed in a homophobic misogynistic light has long been a standard component of popular Gothic fiction and film The author argues however that in more contemporary fiction motifs and modes of fiction with Gothic associations such as the witch the vampire the spectral visitor and the Gothic thriller have been appropriated by writers adopting a lesbian viewpoint to articulate the transgressive aspect of lesbian sexuality and existence Blueprint, 2009

The Radical Fiction of Ann Petry Keith Clark, 2013-06-03 In his in depth analysis of the works of Ann Petry 1908-1997 Keith Clark moves beyond assessments of Petry as a major mid twentieth century African American author and the sole female member of the Wright School of Social Protest He focuses on her innovative approaches to gender performance sexuality and literary technique Engaging a variety of disciplinary frameworks including gothic criticism masculinity and gender studies queer theory and psychoanalytic theory Clark offers fresh readings of Petry's three novels and collection of short stories He explores for example Petry's use of terror in The Street where both blacks and whites appear physically and psychically monstrous He identifies the use of dark comedy and the macabre in the stories The Bones of Louella Brown and The Witness Petry's overlooked second novel Country Place set in a deceptively serene Connecticut hamlet camouflages a world as nightmarish as the Harlem of her previous work While confirming the black feminist dimensions of Petry's writing Clark also assesses the writer's representations of an array of black and white masculine behaviors some socially sanctioned others taboo in her unheralded masterpiece The Narrows and her widely anthologized short story Like a Winding Sheet Expansive in scope The Radical Fiction of Ann Petry analyzes Petry's unique concerns and agile techniques situating her among more celebrated male contemporary writers Communication in Postmodern Urban Fiction Lisann

Anders, 2020-05-20 We cannot imagine our world without its digital mirror anymore We communicate to others in mediated ways and even create ourselves through our technological devices presenting an imagined version of us to the outside world This book is concerned with precisely this imagination of the self in an increasing digitalized society going back to the beginning of our digital age to the peak of postmodernism at the end of the 20th century Looking at urban fiction from the 1980s to the early 2000s the journey of fictional protagonists through the streets of mostly New York City reveals an anxiety about the loss of self in the virtual culminating in violence and destruction From Auster and Ellis to Palahniuk and DeLillo this book highlights how an increasingly distanced communication triggers the imagination of violence making it an insightful read for scholars and aficionados of city literature postmodernism and communication alike A Companion to the American Novel Alfred Bendixen, 2014-11-17 Featuring 37 essays by distinguished literary scholars A Companion to the

Dickens and Benjamin Gillian Piggott, 2016-04-15 Placing the works of Charles Dickens and Walter Benjamin in conversation with one another Gillian Piggott argues that the two writers display a shared vision of modernity Her analysis of their works shows that both writers demonstrate a decreased confidence in the capacity to experience truth or religious meaning in an increasingly materialist world and that both occupy similar positions towards urban modernity and its effect upon experience Piggott juxtaposes her exploration of Benjamin's ideas on allegory and messianism with an examination of Dickens's The Old Curiosity Shop arguing that both writers proffer a melancholy vision of a world devoid of space and time for religious experience a state of affairs they associate with the onset of industrial capitalism In Benjamin's The Arcades Project and Dickens's Sketches by Boz and Tale of Two Cities among other works the authors converge in their hugely influential treatments of the city as a site of perambulation creativity memory and autobiography At the same time both authors relate to the vertiginous mutable fast paced nature of city life as involving a concomitant change in the structure of experience an alteration that can be understood as a reduction in the capacity to experience fully Piggott's persuasive analyses enable a reading of Dickens as part of a European particularly a German tradition of thinkers and writers of industrialization and modernity For both Dickens and Benjamin truth appears only in moments of revelation in fragments of modernity

J.G. Ballard Andrzej Gasiorek, 2005-10-07 Ballard's early science fiction writing earned him plaudits as one of the most innovative and individual voices in the field but his development as a writer has taken him far beyond the confines of any single genre This book traces Ballard's career from his early science fiction short stories and novels to his most recent work particularly his timely reflections on the role of violence in contemporary social life It argues that Ballard's writing is characterized by a distinctive vision of the post war world and its possible futures and suggests that his far reaching analyses of the present age make him one of the indispensable commentators of our time
