Mysteries of My Land Reza Baraheni, 2021-09-15 Hossein Tanzifi a young English interpreter for American advisors in Iran is caught at a crossroads when he witnesses the assassination of an American adviser by thirteen army officers Hossein who had no role in the incident is sentenced to life in prison Fourteen people were executed for the murder and he is the only one who knows what happened and who is covering it up Eighteen years later during the Iranian revolution Hossein is released from prison and while dodging his own murder he searches for the one woman who can unveil the truth The story as told by this world famous novelist is a historical fiction character driven novel narrated from different perspectives It weaves together the plights of characters from opposite hemispheres of the world It is renowned for being the single most accurate depiction of the social atmosphere of Iran from 1959 to 1979 which led up to the overthrow of the Pahlavi dynasty under Shah Mohammad Reza Pahlavi through a popular uprising and its replacement with the Islamic Republic of Iran

Bragantia, 1971 The Incarcerated Modern Golnar Nikpour, 2024-02-06 Iran's prison system is a foundational institution of Iranian political modernity The Incarcerated Modern traces the transformation of Iran from a decentralized empire with few imprisoned persons at the turn of the twentieth century into a modern nation state with over a quarter million prisoners today In policing the line between bad criminal and good citizen the carceral system has shaped and reshaped Iranian understandings of citizenship freedom and political belonging Golnar Nikpour explores the interplay between the concrete space of the Iranian prison and the role of prisons in producing new public cultures and political languages in Iran From prison writings of 1920s leftist prisoners and communiques of 1950s militant Islamists to paintings of 1970s revolutionary guerrillas and mapping projects organized by contemporary dissident prisoners carceral confinement has shaped modern Iranian political movements Today mass incarceration is a global phenomenon The Incarcerated Modern connects Iranian history to transnational carceral histories to illuminate the shared architectures economies and techniques of modern punishment

Accosting the Butterflies Reza Baraheni, 2020-08-30 This book is about love memory loss the displacement of identity when you long for the home you left to make a home in this world and the stops in between The mind always longs for that home which is never to be again They include translations of poems published by the same title in Iran when introducing Post Modern poetry into the rhythms of Persian poetry as well as English poems

Strange Times, My Dear Nahid Mozaffari, Ahmad Karimi-Hakkak, 2005 Despite war repression and censorship a renaissance has taken place in Iran over the last quarter century PEN have gathered selections that have lain completely unknown outside of Iran since 1979 from over 40 writers of three different generations The first book of its kind to appear in English this is a major anthology displaying the extraordinary scope and progress of Iranian literature

Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction Mohammad Khorrami, 2014-09-25 The main focus of Literary Subterfuge and Contemporary Persian Fiction is to identify components and elements which define Persian modernist fiction placing an emphasis on literary concepts and devices which provide the dynamics of the evolutionary trajectory of this modernism The question of who writes Iran refers to a contested area which goes beyond the discipline of literary criticism Non literary discourses have made every effort to impose their committed readings on literary texts they have even managed to exert influence on the process of literary creation In this process inevitably many works or segments of them and many concepts which do not lend themselves to such readings have been ignored at the same time many of them have been appropriated by these discourses Yet components and elements of Persian literary tradition have persistently engaged in this discursive confrontation mainly by insisting on literature s relative autonomy so that at least concepts such as conformity and subterfuge essential in terms of defining modern and modernist Persian fiction could be defined in a literary manner Proffering an alternative in terms of literary historiography this book supports a methodological approach that considers literary narratives which occur in the margins of dominant discourses and indeed promote non discursivity as the main writers of Persian modernist fiction It is an essential resource for scholars and researchers interested in Persian and comparative literature as well as Middle Eastern Studies more broadly

Spaces of Appearance Martin Renz, Julius Schwarzwälder, 2025-11-07 Present whenever people act together and yet never seen for what they do spaces of appearance come in many guises a car crash in Vienna a discussion forum in Dresden a baker s queue in Paris an art festival in Shiraz an unbuilt house in Istanbul a law court in Berlin a photograph from Arkansas Taking their cue from Hannah Arendt s famous concept the case studies in this volume written in close collaboration examine how the perceptive standards of a given political situation may subtly change or consolidate Supported by a wealth of images this volume demonstrates how the concept can be activated for innovative research especially in cases where an understanding of aesthetics and politics needs to go beyond their analogization Featuring an essay by Susan Buck Morss
