English Language Arts the Kindergarten Way Molly Cochell, Laura Fullmer, 2017-05-02 Kindergarten teachers know that a child's first taste of school should be engaging, active, social, and fun. Yet teachers are presented with a challenge: How do they nurture the holistic, exploratory nature of early childhood while teaching with the intentionality and rigor required to meet learning goals? Let this resource pave the way. English Language Arts the Kindergarten Way contains methods for teaching foundational reading skills, building vocabulary, inspiring and developing writing, and helping children respond to literature and informational text while inherently fulfilling the needs of the whole child. An entire year of activities is included. And all activities are classroom tested and naturally infuse visual art, music, drama, poetry, movement, and puppetry so that kindergartners meet learning goals their way. Resources in Education, 1976

The Art and Science of Teaching Primary Reading Christopher Such, 2021-07-07 The essential guide to the science behind reading and its practical implications for classroom teaching in primary schools. Teaching children to read is one of the most important tasks in primary education, and classroom practice needs to be underpinned by a secure foundation of knowledge. Teachers need to know what reading entails, how children learn to read, and how it can be taught effectively. This book is an essential guide for primary teachers that explores the key technical and practical aspects of how children read, with strong links to theory and how to translate this into the classroom. Bite-size chapters offer accessible research-informed ideas across all major key topics, including phonics, comprehension, teaching children with reading difficulties, and strategies for the classroom. Key features include: Discussions of implications for the classroom; Questions for further professional discussions; Retrieval quizzes; Further reading suggestions; Glossary of key terms. Christopher Such is a primary school teacher and the author of the education blog Primary Colour. He can be found on Twitter via Suchmo83.
