

Fiona Singleton is only eleven years old and she is already a brilliant pianist. However, she lives in a small flat that there is certainly no room for a piano. So, every single day after school, Fiona rides the bus across town to see her aunt, whose grand piano is always available to her. Sitting by herself in her aunt's enormous living room, she spends an hour concentrating on pieces she needs to perform at her next concert. But then she stays for another hour and plays together with her aunt, who has a successful career as a top concert pianist. Fiona dreams that she will one day lead a life just like her aunt's, but of course in her dreams, she is the best pianist in the whole wide world!

Natural Talent?

Do some people have natural talent that they are born with (21) .. or.. is it a case of working hard and making the most of what they've got? Professional sportsmen and women are (22)... a ... good example. Certainly there are those (23).. who ... have shown a natural ability at a very young age. However, this will not lead (24)... to ... success by itself. ----- . Other personal qualities are needed, (25) .. such.. as determination and a desire to be the best. Then there is the idea of hard work. If you (26) .. want .. to succeed you need to work very hard. So, in my opinion, natural talent and hard work go hand in hand. One cannot exist (27) .. without .. the other.
