Unfortunately, lots of these processes are not run well, resulting in loss of large saving opportunities, delivery of poor quality products, or less favorable terms.

When selecting suppliers through a tender or sourcing process, the buyer works in collaboration with internal customers or budget holders. They are the ones who originally raised the need for the purchase and who will be actually transacting with the selected supplier. Internal customer involvement is usually highest (around 70%) at the specification stage and then drops to around 30% in subsequent stages.
