

- Problem: It also can break through under the attention when the "strong thing" of the advertisement is concerned. (Example: cigarette or alcohol.)
- International use: even when it is suggested that human is universal, there are cultural variations of human that may make effective in the same country that is another.

2) The other user to break through under: Sexual themes, really do not always work.

- Cultural approach: sexual theme or topic is able to attempt to affect a consumer's behavior.

- Generally, many women respond more favorably to a sexual suggestion than an overly sexual approach. (Generally highlighted)

- Sexual suggestion: tends that men is about to use the product. (Children, alcohol, etc. things are implied)

- Study in gender really: especially in products that contain sexual connotations or elements such as clothing, perfume, etc. feature a degree of nudity. They use descriptive models or individuals in advertisements to attract the product as a sexual attractive object.
- Over sexually: used to ads for sexually oriented products is normally accepted but it is controversial when used other kind of products.
- In ads without sexual theme:
 - a) Attracting attention: ads to cause that the user of another approach. It may be distracting for the consumer of the ad.
 - b) Physiological arousal: tendency: this has been related to the formation of both affective and cognitive responses. Men and women react different about the ads using a model of the approach.
 - c) Cognitive responses: it depends of whether the viewer uses the ad as stimulus or reference.
 - d) Gender trends: the consideration of the society's view and level of acceptance.
