Writing is a critical component for teaching children about advocacy and empowering student voice as well as an essential tool for learning in many disciplines Yet writing instruction in schools often focuses on traditional methods such as the composition of five paragraph essays or the adherence to proper grammatical conventions While these are two components of writing instruction and preparation in education they only provide a small glimpse into the depth and breadth of writing As such writing instruction is increasingly complex and requires multiple perspectives and levels of skill among teachers The Handbook of Research on Writing Instruction Practices for Equitable and Effective Teaching serves as a comprehensive reference of issues related to writing instruction and leading research about perspectives methods and approaches for equitable and effective writing instruction It includes practices beyond K 12 including best writing practices at the college level as well as the development of future teachers Providing unique coverage on culturally relevant writing socio and racio linguistic justice and urgent writing pedagogies this major reference work is an indispensable resource for administrators and educators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators libraries government officials researchers and academicians
