Malaysian World-view Mohd. Taib Osman, 1985 This collection of essays on the worldviews of the people in Malaysia focuses on the three main ethnic groups: the Malays, Chinese, and Indians, as well as the indigenous peoples of Sabah. Topics include the Islamic worldview of Man, society, and nature; the traditional Malay socio-political outlook; the language and worldview of the Malay peasants, as well as Malaysian folk tales and drama. Islamic Entrepreneurship Rasem N. Kayed, M. Kabir Hassan, 2013-12-16 This book discusses the idea that there is a specific Islamic form of entrepreneurship. Based on extensive original research amongst small and medium-sized enterprises in Saudi Arabia, it shows how businesses are started and how they grow in the context of an Islamic economy and society. It argues that as specific Islamic approaches to a wide range of economic activities are being formulated and implemented, there is indeed a particular Islamic approach to entrepreneurship. Examining the relationship between Islamic values and entrepreneurial activity, the book considers whether such values can be more effectively used in order to raise the profile of Islamic entrepreneurship and also to promote alternatives to development in the contemporary business environment. The book analyses the nature of entrepreneurship and the special qualities of Islamic entrepreneurship and discusses how the Islamic approach to entrepreneurship can be encouraged and developed further still.

Studies in Islamic Social Sciences Masudul Alam Choudhury, 1998-03-15 This book is a project toward the continuing theme of the Islamic worldview of economy, society, institution, and interactions in national and international forums, wherein individual and group preferences are created and sustained by the regeneration of knowledge into higher levels of realising truth. Truth and the medium of knowledge for realising higher levels of truth are argued to be the only most immutable character of all systems.
