Commitment In The Workplace Theory Research And Application:

Commitment in the Workplace John P. Meyer, Natalie J. Allen, 1997-01-27 What is a committed employee Are employees who are committed better or worse off than employees who are uncommitted What are the organizational advantages and disadvantages of having a committed workforce Commitment in the Workplace provides an overview of academic and popular perspectives on what committed employees look like and how they become committed The multiple faces of commitment are examined as are the links that have been established between the various forms of commitment and organizational behavior In addition questions concerning individual differences organizational characteristics and work experiences associated with commitment are explored The book concludes with a discussion of what organizations can do to manage commitment effectively including commitment under more difficult circumstances such as merger acquisition downsizing and relocation One of the great strengths of the book is that it summarizes the key organizational commitment research in such a way that the research findings can be evaluated for both their scientific merit and their practical value The primary audience for Commitment in the Workplace includes students in MBA and executive MBA programs researchers and students and practitioners in the fields of organizational behavior and industrial psychology

Commitment in the Workplace John P. Meyer, 1997 Commitment in the Workplace examines the multiple facets of commitment and the links between the various forms of commitment and organizational behaviour

Proceedings of the International Conference Theory and Applications in the Knowledge Economy Eduardo Tomé, 2016-07-08

Foreword TAKE 2016 is a dream that came true In about six months a group of friends and colleagues put together in an upcoming and very dynamic university a conference with 9 streams 3 keynotes and 3 special sessions 60 papers presented 6 posters and around 80 participants from 20 countries This is awesome I would like to deeply thank Aveiro University the GOVCOPP research centre the conference committee the keynote speakers the special session convenors the stream leaders the reviewers the authors and the administrative people for all their work and support I want to have two special words one for Blazenka Knezevic without whom the website would not have been possible the other for Gaby Neumann for work in these Proceedings Scientifically TAKE seems to be as important and new and far reaching We don't have shortage of models regarding the knowledge economy but we decisively lack to explore the relation between theory and practice TAKE is a step in exploring that difference We know that Exact sciences find the best answers and social sciences give the best questions J C Spender and we also know that Knowledge Management is more preached by scholars than done by practitioners Aino Kianto We assume the first idea and try to overcome the second Hopefully TAKE 2016 will be a great success Thank you for everything
