

A series of classic philosophical texts from Dover

The four pillars of Slavoj Žižek's work are (Lacanian) psychoanalysis, (Hegelian) philosophy, a (Marxist) theory of ideology, and (Christian) theology. The structure of this scholarly edifice is mapped out in the title of The Essential Žižek, four central interventions into each of these fields. The focus of The Sublime Object of Ideology is the importance of Lacan's work to philosophy and contemporary political struggle; the Titchener subject examines German Idealism and the unrepresentable horizon of our thinking; The Master of Passions examines the ideological mechanisms that shape our daily experience; and The Puppet Master explores the emancipatory core of Christianity.

Metaphors of Confinement Monika Fludernik, 2019-08-13 Metaphors of Confinement: The Prison in Fact Fiction and Fantasy offers a historical survey of imaginings of the prison as expressed in carceral metaphors in a range of texts about imprisonment from Antiquity to the present as well as non penal situations described as confining or restrictive These imaginings coalesce into a carceral imaginary that determines the way we think about prisons just as social debates about punishment and criminals feed into the way carceral imaginary develops over time Examining not only English language prose fiction but also poetry and drama from the Middle Ages to postcolonial particularly African literature the book juxtaposes literary and non literary contexts and contrasts fictional and nonfictional representations of imprisonment and discussions about the prison as institution and experiential reality It comments on present day trends of punitivity and foregrounds the ethical dimensions of penal punishment The main argument concerns the continuity of carceral metaphors through the centuries despite historical developments that included major shifts in policy such as the invention of the penitentiary The study looks at selected carceral metaphors often from two complementary perspectives such as the home as prison or the prison as home or the factory as prison and the prison as factory The case studies present particularly relevant genres and texts that employ these metaphors often from a historical perspective that analyses development through different periods

Organized Networks Ned Rossiter, 2006 The celebration of network

cultures as open decentralized and horizontal all too easily overshadows their political dimensions Organized Networks sets out to destroy these myths by tracking the antagonisms that lurk within Internet governance debates the exploitation of labor in creative industries and the aesthetics of global finance capital Cutting across the fields of media theory political philosophy and cultural critique Ned Rossiter diagnoses some of the key problematics facing network cultures today BOOK JACKET

The Arizona Quarterly ,2016 Control and Freedom Wendy Hui Kyong Chun,2006 Wendy Hui Kyong Chun explores the current political technological coupling of freedom with control by tracing the emergence of the Internet as a mass medium She argues that the parallel myths of the Internet as total freedom total control stem from our reduction of political problems into technological ones Literature and Sensation Anthony Uhlmann,2009 The essays in this volume cover literature and sensation in all its facets drawing upon a range of approaches from evolutionary theory theories of mind perception philosophy and aesthetics The works considered are drawn from various literary periods and genres Oceania Alfred Reginald Radcliffe-Brown,Raymond Firth,Adolphus Peter Elkin,2008 Includes the sections Reviews and Bibliographical notes Dead Letters to Nietzsche, Or the Necromantic Art of Reading Philosophy Joanne Faulkner,2010-05-18 Dead Letters to Nietzsche examines how writing shapes subjectivity through the example of Nietzsche s reception by his readers including Stanley Rosen David Farrell Krell Georges Bataille Laurence Lampert Pierre Klossowski and Sarah Kofman More precisely Joanne Faulkner finds that the personal identification that these readers form with Nietzsche s texts is an enactment of the kind of identity formation described in Lacanian and Kleinian psychoanalysis This investment of their subjectivity guides their understanding of Nietzsche s project the revaluation of values Not only does this work make a provocative contribution to Nietzsche scholarship but it also opens in an original way broader philosophical questions about how readers come to be invested in a philosophical project and how such investment alters their subjectivity Heart of Darkness Joseph Conrad,2011-03-01 This volume presents the text of the 1921 Heinemann edition of Conrads classic short novel along with documents that place the work in historical context and critical essays that read Heart of Darkness from several contemporary critical perspectives The text and essays are complemented by biographical and critical introductions bibliographies and a glossary of critical and theoretical terms In this third edition the section of cultural documents and illustrations is entirely new as are two recent exemplary critical essays by Gabrielle McIntire and Tony C Brown that synthesize a variety of current critical approaches Publications of the Modern Language Association of America ,2005 Polish Sociological Review ,2009 Curare ,2007 The Plague of Fantasies Slavoj Žižek,1997 Slavoj Zizek is without doubt one of the most stimulating and vibrant thinkers of our time and his idiosyncratic blend of Lacan and Hegel is always sparkling with insight and studded with amusing stories anecdotes and jokes In The Plague of Fantasies Zizek approaches another enormous subject with characteristic brio and provocativeness The current epoch is plagued by fantasms there is an ever intensifying antagonism between the process of ever greater abstraction of our lives whether in the form of digitalization or market relations and the deluge of pseudo concrete images which surround us Traditional critical thought would have sought to trace the roots of abstract notions in concrete social reality but today the correct procedure is the inverse from pseudo concrete imagery to the abstract process which structures our lives Ranging in his examples from national differences in toilet design to cybersex and from intellectuals responses to the Bosnian war to Robert Schumann s music Žizek explores the relations between fantasy and ideology the way in which fantasy animates enjoyment while protecting against its excesses the associations of the notion of fetishism with fantasized seduction and the ways in which digitalization and cyberspace affect the status of subjectivity To the already initiated The Plague of Fantasies will be a welcome reminder of why they enjoy Žizek s writing so much For new readers it will be the beginning of a long and meaningful relationship

Violence Slavoj Žizek, 2008-07-22 Philosopher cultural critic and agent provocateur Slavoj Žizek constructs a fascinating new framework to look at the forces of violence in our world Using history philosophy books movies Lacanian psychiatry and jokes Slavoj Žizek examines the ways we perceive and misperceive violence Drawing from his unique cultural vision Žizek brings new light to the Paris riots of 2005 he questions the permissiveness of violence in philanthropy in daring terms he reflects on the powerful image and determination of contemporary terrorists Violence Žizek states takes three forms subjective crime terror objective racism hate speech discrimination and systemic the catastrophic effects of economic and political systems and often one form of violence blunts our ability to see the others raising complicated questions Does the advent of capitalism and indeed civilization cause more violence than it prevents Is there violence in the simple idea of the neighbour And could the appropriate form of action against violence today simply be to contemplate to think Beginning with these and other equally contemplative questions Žizek discusses the inherent violence of globalization capitalism fundamentalism and language in a work that will confirm his standing as one of our most erudite and incendiary modern thinkers
