Fra Angelico Dissemblance And Figuration:

Fra Angelico Georges Didi-Huberman, Angelico (fra), 1995-10-15 A Florentine painter who took Dominican vows Fra Angelico 1400 1455 approached his work as a largely theological project For him the problems of representing the unrepresentable of portraying the divine and the spiritual mitigated the more secular breakthroughs in imitative technique Didi Huberman explores Fra Angelico s solutions to these problems his use of color to signal approaching visibility of marble to recall Christ s tomb of paint drippings to simulate or stimulate holy anointing He shows how the painter employed emptiness visual transformation and displacement to give form to the mystery of faith In the work of Fra Angelico an alternate strain of Renaissance painting emerges to challenge rather than reinforce verisimilitude Didi Huberman traces this disruptive impulse through theological writings and iconographic evidence and identifies a widespread tradition in Renaissance art that ranges from Giotto s break with Byzantine image making well into the sixteenth century He reveals how the techniques that served this ultimately religious impulse may have anticipated the more abstract characteristics of modern art such as color fields paint splatterings and the absence of color Part of Didi Huberman s large scale rethinking of art theory and history and the first of his books to appear in English translation Fra Angelico is a fitting introduction to one of the most original and celebrated writers in the world of art history and criticism

Fra Angelico; Dissemblance & Figuration; Translated by J M Todd; ND623An3 G. Ediz. illustrata* Diane Cole Ahl, Angelico (fra), 2008-07-31 Examines the life and work of possibly the most celebrated religious painter of the Italian Early Renaissance Fra Giovanni da Fiesole known as Fra Angelico From the delicate altarpieces to the serene frescos in the monastery of San Marco in Florence this book discusses the context of the time and places in which his works were created

Practice and Theory in the Italian Renaissance Workshop Christina Neilson, 2019-07-18 Verrocchio worked in an extraordinarily wide array of media and used unusual practices of making to express ideas Senses of Touch Marjorie O'Rourke Boyle, 1998 Its alternative interpretations explore in theory and in practice the sensuality the creativity and the plain utility of hands thus integrating biology and culture Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography Henrik Gustafsson, 2019-05-24 This book offers a rare and innovative consideration of an enduring tendency in postwar art to explore places devoid of human agents in the wake of violent encounters To see the scenery together with the crime elicits a double interrogation not merely of a physical site but also of its formation as an aesthetic artefact and ultimately of our own acts of looking and imagining Closely engaging with a vast array of works made by artists filmmakers and photographers each who has forged a distinct vantage point on the aftermath of crime and conflict the study selectively maps the afterlife of landscape in search of the political and ethical agency of the image By way of a thoroughly interdisciplinary approach Crime Scenery in Postwar Film and Photography brings landscape studies into close dialogue with contemporary theory by paying sustained attention to how the gesture of retracing past events facilitates new configurations of the present and future

Didi-Huberman and the image Chari Larsson,2020-09-29 Philosopher and art historian Georges Didi Huberman is one of the most innovative and influential critical thinkers writing today This book is the first English language study of his writing on images An image is a form of representation but what are the philosophical frameworks supporting it The book considers how Didi Huberman takes up this question repeatedly over the course of his career Placing his project in relation to major historical and intellectual contexts it shows not only how he modifies dominant disciplinary traditions but also how the study of images is central to a new way of thinking about poststructuralist inspired art history Grace and Gravity Lars

Spuybroek,2020-11-26 How do we live well The first sentence of Grace and Gravity raises the fundamental question that constantly occupies our minds and of all those who lived before us Paradoxically the impossibility of answering this question opens up the very room needed to find ways of living well It is the gap where all disciplines fall short where architecture does not fit its inhabitants where economy is not based on shortage where religion cannot be explained by its followers and where technology works far beyond its own principles According to Lars Spuybroek the prize winning former architect this marks the point where the paradoxical machine of grace reveals its powers a point where we cannot say if we are moving or being moved Following the trail of grace leads him to a new form of analysis that transcends the age old opposition between appearances and technology Linking up a dazzling and often delightful variety of sources monkeys paintings lamp posts octopuses tattoos bleeding fingers rose windows robots smart phones spirits saints and fossils with profound meditations on living death consciousness and existence Grace and Gravity offers an eye opening provocation to a wide range of art historians architects theologians anthropologists artists media theorists and philosophers The Announcement Hana

Gründler,Alessandro Nova,Itay Sapir,2020-09-21 The Annunciation a specific event recounted in the Bible and often represented in artworks but also the prototype of many other announcements throughout the history of Western culture This volume proposes new readings of pictorial Annunciations from the Middle Ages and the Early Modern period treating aspects such as witnesses inscriptions and architecture as well as analyses of some visual echoes reenactments of the announcement to Mary in sacred and profane contexts up to the twenty first century Among the latter are included Venetian decoration glorifying the state a Jean Luc Godard film a video art piece by Eija Liisa Ahtila Lars von Trier s Melancholia and a saint s bedroom turned into a pilgrimage site Phantasms of Matter in Gogol (and Gombrowicz) Michal Oklot,2009 An investigation into the problem of writing about matter in Nikolai Gogol s work and indirectly into the entire Neoplatonic tradition in Russian literature this book is not intended to be an exhaustive historical survey of the concept of matter but rather an effort to enumerate the images of matter in Gogol s texts and to specify the rules of their construction The trajectory of the book is directed by movement from Gogol to Gogol Its major assumption is that Gogol successfully develops a language for grasping the Neoplatonic concept of matter and subsequently rejects it abandoning literature Since then the Gogolian form sic of the image of a sheer negation of form has recurred frequently in Russian literature Yet the direction of the movement is always towards Gogol Somewhere at the margin of this circular trajectory one can inscribe a Polish writer Witold Gombrowicz who established one hundred years later a similar rhythm governing Polish literature from Gombrowicz to Gombrowicz

Potential Images Dario Gamboni,2002 In Potential Images Dario Gamboni explores ambiguity in modern art considering images that rely to a great degree on a projected or imaginative response from viewers to achieve their effect Ambiguity became increasingly important in late 19th and early 20th century aesthetics as is evidenced in works by such artists as Redon Cezanne Gauguin Ensor and the Nabis Similarly the Cubists subverted traditional representational conventions requiring their viewers to decipher images to extract their full meanings The same device was taken up in the various experiments leading to abstraction For example it was Kandinsky s intention that his work could be interpreted in both figurative and non figurative ways and Duchamp s Readymades suggested the radical conclusion that it is the beholder who makes the picture These invitations to viewers to participate in the process of artistic communication had social and political implications as they accorded artist and beholder symmetrical almost interchangeable roles FMR ,2005

Italian history & culture ,1997 Choice ,1996 The Vanishing Christopher Pye,2000 In The Vanishing Christopher Pye combines psychoanalytic and cultural theory to advance an innovative interpretation of Renaissance history and subjectivity Locating the emergence of the modern subject in the era s transition from feudalism to a modern societal state Pye supports his argument with interpretations of diverse cultural and literary phenomena including Shakespeare s Hamlet and King Lear witchcraft and demonism anatomy theaters and the paintings of Michelangelo Pye explores the emergence of the early modern subject in terms of a range of subjectivizing mechanisms tied to the birth of a modern conception of history one that is structured around a spatial and temporal horizon a vanishing point He also discusses the distinctly economic character of early modern subjectivity and how this too is implicated in our own modern modes of historical understanding After explaining how the aims of New Historicist and Foucauldian approaches to the Renaissance are inseparably linked to such a historical conception Pye demonstrates how the early modern subject can be understood in terms of a Lacanian and Zizekian account of the emerging social sphere By focusing on the Renaissance as a period of remarkable artistic and cultural production he is able to illustrate his points with discussions of a number of uniquely fascinating topics for instance how demonism was intimately related to a significant shift in law and symbolic order and how there existed at the time a demonic preoccupation with certain erotic dimensions of the emergent social subject Highly sophisticated and elegantly crafted The Vanishing will be of interest to students of Shakespeare and early modern culture Renaissance visual art and cultural and psychoanalytic theory Federico Barocci Stuart Lingo, 2008 Federico Barocci was among the most admired painters in sixteenth century Italy but the distinctive nature of his compelling altarpieces and their historical importance have never been fully understood This important study relates Barocci's achievements to transformations in the theory and practice of painting during an era in which pictorial developments generated deep tensions for ecclesiastical art Barocci was celebrated as one of the only painters whose religious works combined the sensuous allure increasingly desired in modern art with profound devotion Through a close study of Barocci's work and of documents ranging from letters to art theory Stuart Lingo reconstructs how the painter accomplished his artistic and cultural miracle In so doing he offers new insights into critical artistic issues in the late Renaissance from the cultural significance of stylistic choices to the early development of analogies between painting and music as affective arts
