

A photograph of two women standing in a dry, hilly landscape. They are seen from behind, carrying large, dark, rounded water jugs on their heads. The woman on the left is wearing a patterned blue and purple skirt, while the woman on the right is wearing a brown patterned skirt. The background shows a vast, arid landscape with sparse green bushes and distant mountains under a clear blue sky.

Johnstone, Sumi Madhok, Ania Plomien, Sadie Wearing, 2014-08-12 At no point in recorded history has there been an absence of intense and heated discussion about the subject of how to conduct relations between women and men This Handbook provides a comprehensive guide to these omnipresent issues and debates mapping the present and future of thinking about feminist theory The chapters gathered here present the state of the art in scholarship in the field covering Epistemology and marginality Literary visual and cultural representations Sexuality Macro and microeconomics of gender Conflict and peace The most important consensus in this volume is that a central organizing tenet of feminism is its willingness to examine the ways in which gender and relations between women and men have been and are organized The authors bring a shared commitment to the critical appraisal of gender relations as well as a recognition that to think theoretically is not to detach concerns from lived experience but to extend the possibilities of understanding With this focus on theory and theorizing about the world in which we live this Handbook asks us across all disciplines and situations to abandon our taken for granted assumptions about the world and interrogate both the origin and the implications of our ideas about gender relations and feminism It is an essential reference work for advanced students and academics not only of feminist theory but of gender and sexuality across the humanities and social sciences

Gender Research in Natural Resource Management Malika Abdelali-Martini, Aden Aw-Hassan, 2013-12-17 The aim of this book is to highlight the role that gender research can play in understanding natural resource management and rural development issues in the Middle East and North Africa region and how hands on training and mentoring can be used as a capacity enhancement approach It presents findings of four research teams working in three countries Algeria Lebanon and Morocco The approach was to build the capacity of national teams through hands on field research mentoring and technical support which is different from traditional training The chapters present the results of the case studies used as learning platforms for the teams and reflections on this approach The case studies demonstrate the capacity and skills that the teams have acquired These teams were multi disciplinary and included social scientists as well as specialists in water management livestock production and rangelands and agronomy The book provides grounded empirical examples for MENA academics practitioners and development students concerned about ensuring gender balanced rural development
