General Notes on Chicago Style

- Chicago style is sometimes referred to as Turabian style, which is a modified version of Chicago style, and which is outlined in A Manual for Writers of Term Papers, Theses, and Dissertations by Kate L. Turabian. Copies of this style manual (7th ed.) are also available at SFU Library.
- Chicago style outlines two distinct citation styles, and this guide covers only the Humanities style:
  - Notes/bibliography style, also known as "Humanities style." Sources are cited through footnotes (or endnotes) and a bibliography
  - Author/date style, also known as "Scientific/Social Sciences style." Sources are cited through parenthetical author/date references in the text and a reference list
- Your paper must be double-spaced. It is conventional to single-space footnotes and bibliographies, leaving a blank line between entries.
- Every page of the paper must be assigned a page number, including blank pages, appendices, and bibliography. Arabic numerals are centered or flush right at the top of the page.
- You need to cite and document any sources that you have consulted, even if you presented the ideas from these sources in your own words. You need to cite:
  - to identify other people's ideas and information used within your essay
  - to inform the reader of your paper where they should look if they want to find the same sources
- A citation must appear in two places in your essay:
  - in the body of your text ("in-text citations")
  - in the Reference List (at the end of your paper)
- To introduce other people's ideas in text, use the following examples:
Richardson argues, refers to, explains, hypothesizes, compares, concludes;
As Littlewood and Sherwin demonstrated, proved, ... etc.
- Webster's Third New International Dictionary and Merriam-Webster's Collegiate Dictionary are the standard spelling references for all Chicago citations (7.1)
- You are responsible for the accuracy of all information in your bibliography.

References in Text: Footnotes and Endnotes (16.19-16.35; 16.59-16.65)

- In Chicago notes/bibliography style, footnotes or endnotes are used to cite quotes, paraphrases, and other in-text references
  - Footnotes are numbered citations listed at the bottom of each page in the research paper
  - Endnotes are numbered citations listed on a single page at the end of the research paper
- To cite a source, a small superscript (raised) number is placed after each in-text reference (16.25). Throughout the paper, these in-text references are numbered in sequential order. For example:

Mooney found that "domestic violence has, since the 1970s, been increasingly recognized as a social problem."<sup>1</sup>
