US Agricultural and Food Policies Gerald D. Toland, Jr., William E. Nganje, Raphael Onyeaghala, 2017-09-18 Policy analysis is a dynamic process of discovery rather than a passive exercise of memorizing facts and conclusions This text provides opportunities to practice the craft of policy analysis by engaging the reader in realistic case studies and problem solving scenarios that require the selection and use of applicable investigative techniques US

Agricultural and Food Policies will assist undergraduate students to learn how policy choices impact the overall performance of agricultural and food markets. It encourages students to systematically investigate scenarios with appropriate positive and normative tools. The book emphasizes the importance of employing critical thinking skills to address the complexities associated with the design and implementation of twenty-first century agricultural and food policies. Students are asked to suspend their personal opinions and emotions and instead apply research methods that require the careful consideration of both facts and values. The opportunities to build these investigative skills are abundant when we consider the diversity of modern agricultural and food policy concerns. Featuring case studies and critical thinking exercises throughout and supported by a Companion Website with slides, a test bank, glossary, and web video links, this is the ideal textbook for any agricultural policy class.

Algerian Islamic Banks Elkhansa Medjedel, Abu Bakar A Hamid, Noor Inayah Yaakub, 2020-10-06. Due to the fierce competitive environment in the banking industry, several service providers implement marketing tactics to compete in order to achieve customer loyalty. Particularly, Islamic banks around the world are struggling to compete against conventional banks in terms of marketing activities, development, and gaining customer loyalty. Relationship marketing tactics such as price, service quality, communication, customization, and reputation are considered as the tools that marketers can use to enhance trust and commitment and subsequently customer loyalty. This study investigates the impact of relationship marketing tactics, trust, and commitment on customer loyalty in Algerian Islamic banks. Data were collected through self-administered questionnaires delivered to 308 customers of two leading Islamic banks in Algeria. Data were analyzed using Structural Equation Modeling through Smart PLS. The results found that only communication and customization are related to trust and reputation, positively related to commitment. Communication and service quality significantly predicted customer loyalty. In addition, the results provided a substantial support that trust and commitment acts partially as the mediators on the relationship between relationship marketing tactics and customer loyalty. Findings also have contributed to new knowledge of evaluating a model of relationship marketing tactics with the role of trust and commitment.
