Remember that an artist's drawing does not always have a single, unified focus and that the viewer's eye can wander.

PROBLEM 1.2

General Narrative Drawing

Make a drawing in which you combine several figures in motion in the center of your subject. In this exercise, we have taken a scene from a painting and used it as a starting point for your drawing.

Take the figure in the center of the painting as your starting point. Use the lines of the figure as a starting point for your drawing. Draw the figure in the center of the page. Then draw the other figures around it. Think of the other figures as a secondary subject. The center of the drawing is the most important. Draw the background figures first and then draw the figure in the center.

Concrete Form

Make a detailed drawing of a concrete object in motion or action. Use the form as an example of the concept of form in the drawing. Draw the object in the center of the page. Then draw the other figures around it. Think of the other figures as a secondary subject. The center of the drawing is the most important. Draw the background figures first and then draw the figure in the center.
