Computerized Content Analysis of Speech and Verbal Texts and Its Many Applications Louis August Gottschalk, Robert J. Bechtel, 2008 The aims of this book are to introduce and illustrate a computerised methodology that is designed to measure the magnitude of diverse mental states emotions and neuropsychiatric dimensions from the content analysis of speech and verbal texts The groundwork for such an enterprise originated in the early 1950s when Louis A Gottschalk at the National Institute of Mental Health at the time became involved in trying to determine and understand how the arousal of emotions could trigger epileptic seizures in some patients He soon realised that there were no adequate methods available to measure the magnitude of emotions and he resolved to evolve a valid procedure to do so

The Economic Way of Thinking Paul T. Heyne, 1973 The author of this book wants beginning students to master a set of concepts that will help them think more coherently and consistently about the wide range of social problems that economic theory illuminates The principles of economics must be taught as tools of analysis The teaching of a concept must take place in the context of application Better the potential application should be taught first then the tool Preface

Goh Keng Swee and Southeast Asian Governance Ian Patrick Austin, 2004 This book is aimed at readers who have limited or even no knowledge of the policy work carried out by Goh Keng Swee on the development of Singapore and the decisive influence his thinking continues to have on contemporary Singapore governance The book further explores how Dr Gohs developmental thinking and practices may be utilized by policy makers in developing economies within the Southeast Asian region and further abroad His work in fact makes clear that developmental success is transferable between nations given the presence of pragmatic policy makers Ultimately the central aim of this book is to encourage further study and consideration of the words and work of one of Southeast Asias premier thinkers on development
