The Virginia Highway Construction and Maintenance Fund Daniel D. McGeehan,1979 This report describes the sources of state monies that make up the State Highway Construction and Maintenance Fund The report shows that a total of 521 731 812 was collected by five state agencies during fiscal year 1978 1979 The Department of Motor Vehicles collected 91% of the revenue or approximately 475 782 127 the Department of Highways and Transportation collected 8% or approximately 41 965 741 400% approximately 2 130 927 360% approximately 1 833 542 and 004% approximately 19 475 were collected by the State Corporation Commission the Court or Commonwealth s Attorney and the State Police respectively The collection mechanisms through which these revenues are channeled and the histories of the sources are also given A reading of the histories of the revenue sources in light of the information given in the section entitled Virginia Highway and Transportation Commission reveals that although the responsibilities of the Commission were expanded from highway related concerns to the much broader realm of transportation in 1974 the sources of revenue which support the activities needed to carry out these responsibilities have not been increased nor has the definition of user been expanded The report points out two actions that resulted in reduced revenues for the Highway Fund One was the elimination of the Gross Earnings Road Tax on Carriers of Passengers and the other was the broadening of the definition of those persons or operators eligible for refunds from the motor fuel tax to include certain taxicab service in 1974 and in 1979 carriers of passengers engaged in regular route service
