Handbook of Research on Educational Communications and Technology David Jonassen, Michael J. Spector, Marcy Driscoll, M. David Merrill, Jeroen van Merriënboer, Marcy P. Driscoll, 2008-09-25 First Published in 2008. Sponsored by the Association of Educational Communication and Technology (AECT), the third edition of this groundbreaking Handbook continues the mission of its predecessors to provide up-to-date summaries and syntheses of recent research pertinent to the educational uses of information and communication technologies. In addition to updating this new edition, it has been expanded from forty-one to fifty-six chapters organized into the following six sections: foundations, strategies, technologies, models, design and development, and methodological issues. In response to feedback from users of the second edition, the following changes have been built into this edition: More Comprehensive topical coverage has been expanded from forty-one to fifty-six chapters and includes many more chapters on technology than in previous editions. Restructured Chapters: this edition features shorter chapters with introductory abstracts, keyword definitions, and extended bibliographies. More International: more than 20% of the contributing authors and one of the volume editors are non-American. Theoretical Focus: Part 1 provides expanded cross-disciplinary theoretical coverage. Methodological Focus: an extended methodological chapter begins with a comprehensive overview of research methods, followed by lengthy, separately authored sections devoted to specific methods. Research and Development Focus: another extended chapter with lengthy, separately authored sections covers educational technology research and development in different areas of investigation, e.g., experimental methods to determine the effectiveness of instructional designs, technology-based instructional interventions, research on instructional design models.
