Golden Kingdoms Joanne Pillsbury, Timothy Potts, Kim N. Richter, 2017-09-26 This volume accompanies a major international loan exhibition featuring more than three hundred works of art many rarely or never before seen in the United States It traces the development of gold working and other luxury arts in the Americas from antiquity until the arrival of Europeans in the early sixteenth century Presenting spectacular works from recent excavations in Peru Colombia Panama Costa Rica Guatemala and Mexico this exhibition focuses on specific places and times crucibles of innovation where artistic exchange rivalry and creativity led to the production of some of the greatest works of art known from the ancient Americas The book and exhibition explore not only artistic practices but also the historical cultural social and political conditions in which luxury arts were produced and circulated alongside their religious meanings and ritual functions Golden Kingdoms creates new understandings of ancient American art through a thematic exploration of indigenous ideas of value and luxury Central to the book is the idea of the exchange of materials and ideas across regions and across time works of great value would often be transported over long distances or passed down over generations in both cases attracting new audiences and inspiring new artists The idea of exchange is at the intellectual heart of this volume researched and written by twenty scholars based in the United States and Latin America

Understanding Architecture Leland M. Roth, 2018-03-13 This widely acclaimed beautifully illustrated survey of Western architecture is now fully revised throughout including essays on non Western traditions The expanded book vividly examines the structure function history and meaning of architecture in ways that are both accessible and engaging Understanding Collapse Guy D. Middleton, 2017-06-26 Understanding Collapse explores the collapse of ancient civilisations such as the Roman Empire the Maya and Easter Island In this lively survey Guy D Middleton critically examines our ideas about collapse how we explain it and how we have constructed potentially misleading myths around collapses showing how and why collapse of societies was a much more complex phenomenon than is often admitted Rather than positing a single explanatory model of collapse economic social or environmental Middleton gives full consideration to the overlooked resilience in communities of ancient peoples and the choices that they made He offers a fresh interpretation of collapse that will be accessible to both students and scholars The book is an engaging introductory level survey of collapse in the archaeology history literature which will be ideal for use in courses on the collapse of civilizations sustainability and climate change It includes up to date case studies of famous and less well known examples of collapses and is illustrated with 25 black and white illustrations 3 line drawings 16 tables and 18 maps Gold and the Incas Christine Dixon, Micheline Ford, Carole Fraresso, Andrew Fyfe, Ulla Holmquist, Simeran Maxwell, María Ysabel Medina Castro, 2013 Gold and the Incas Lost worlds of Peru reveals the splendor of ancient pre Hispanic cultures of Peru Art made of gold silver turquoise shell stone textile and ceramic is shown More than 200 objects are covered from gold armour and intricate jewellery to elaborate embroidered and woven cloths They show the aesthetic depth drama and beauty of the famous Incan empire and its predecessors As well as deities lively depictions of animals birds and fish decorate the works Treasures from the Museo Nacional de Arqueología Antropología e Historia del Perú Museo Arqueológico Rafael Larco Herrera Fundación Museo Amano Museo Oro del Perú and the National Gallery of Australia are discussed and illustrated in color Encyclopedia of Society and Culture in the Ancient World Peter I. Bogucki, 2008 The four volume Encyclopedia of Society and Culture in the Ancient World offers comprehensive coverage of the ancient world from prehistory to the fall of Rome including Western and non Western cultures and civilizations An introduction outlines the key milestones in the development of human society from the peoples of the Ice Age whose way of life was so vastly different from ours to the citizens of Greece and Rome whom we easily recognize from history books The 69 signed entries including 14 on major topics with more in depth coverage provide readers with an overview of the various ways in which people lived in the past Each entry explores a specific topic across the entire world beginning with an introduction that outlines the major developments in chronological sequence followed by subsections on the following centers of civilization Africa Egypt the Middle East Asia and the Pacific Europe Greece Rome and the Americas Each entry concludes with a list of see also references to related entries followed by a further reading list of books articles and Web sites on the topic Primary source documents sidebars and more than 250 black and white photographs and maps supplement the text A glossary general bibliography chronology by region and comprehensive index make this set an easy to use and essential reference for high school and college students researchers and general readers alike American Book Publishing Record , 2003 A

Pre-Columbian World Jeffrey Quilter, Mary Ellen Miller, 2006 The articles in this book conceptualize the ancient New World through new and varied approaches from iconography to the history of anthropology The many essays in this volume explore the vast vista of the Pre Columbian world including representations of history memory and knowledge in Andean visual imagery and Pre Columbian narrative the ideology of rain making and Maya beliefs about animal transformations Interior Design Corky Binggeli, 2007-02-26 From the history of interior design to professional development this guide completely covers the process of interior design the development of a design concept analysis of built spaces programming and functional relationships space planning and design development presentations Tiwanaku Margaret Young-Sánchez, 2009 In 2005 the Denver Art Museum hosted a symposium in conjunction with the exhibition Tiwanaku Ancestors of the Inca An international array of scholars of Tiwanaku Wari and Inca art and archaeology presented results of the latest research conducted in Bolivia Chile and Peru Bringing together current research on Pucara Tiwanaku Wari and Inca art and archaeology this volume will be an important resource for scholars and enthusiasts of ancient South America World Views Laurie Adams, 2003-07-17 This text comprises eleven chapters each focusing on a discrete area of non Western or Native American art With nearly 180 illustrations many in full color and an accessible 8 1 2 x 11 format students are introduced to important subjects and artworks outside of the Western tradition Art History Marilyn Stokstad, 2005 Marilyn Stokstad s landmark survey has been thoroughly revised and updated with heavily reworked sections on Renaissance Baroque and Modern art as well as a completely new design and larger and more numerous illustrations The Archaeology of Medicine and Healthcare Naomi Sykes, Julia Shaw, 2022-06-08 The maintenance of human health and the mechanisms by which this is achieved through medicine medical intervention and care giving are fundamentals of human societies However archaeological investigations of medicine and care have tended to examine the obvious and explicit manifestations of medical treatment as discrete practices that take place within specific settings rather than as broader indicators of medical worldviews and health beliefs This volume highlights the importance of medical worldviews as a means of understanding healthcare and medical practice in the past The volume brings together ten chapters with themes ranging from a bioarchaeology of Neanderthal healthcare to Roman air quality decontamination strategies at Australian quarantine centres to local resistance to colonial medical structures in South America Within their chapters the contributors argue for greater integration between archaeology and both the medical and environmental humanities while the Introduction presents suggestions for future engagement with emerging discourse in community and public health environmental and planetary health genetic and epigenetic medicine exposome studies and ecological public health microbiome studies and historical disability studies The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of World Archaeology A History of Interior Design John F. Pile, 2009-02-24 Now in its third edition and fully updated with the most recent examples A History of Interior Design tells the story of 6 000 years of domestic and public space John Pile acknowledges that interior design is a field with unclear boundaries in which construction architecture furniture decoration technology and product design all overlap These topics are woven together in a fascinating narrative that runs from cave dwellings and temple architecture through Gothic cathedrals and renaissance palaces to the grand civic spaces of the nineteenth century and the sleek interiors of modern skyscrapers Embedded in a social and political context detailed discussions of famous buildings from the Parthenon to the Pompidou Centre are interspersed with investigations of the domestic vernacular the cottages farmhouses apartments and city terraces inhabited by ordinary people In this new edition the evolution of interior design has been made even more accessible through the inclusion of a CD ROM with an interactive timeline Incorporating over 100 illustrations this sets the great interior spaces of the world in the context of the social political and technological developments of the time Includes a CD ROM with over 100 illustrations providing an interactive timeline of the history of interior design Expanded and enriched with many more examples of landmark contemporary interiors With 666 illustrations 312 in colour
