Mediascapes New Patterns In Canadian Communication:

Mediascapes Paul Attallah, Leslie Regan Shade, 2006      The Routledge Companion to Media & Gender Cynthia Carter, Linda Steiner, Lisa McLaughlin, 2013-12-13 The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender offers a comprehensive examination of media and gender studies charting its histories investigating ongoing controversies and assessing future trends The 59 chapters in this volume written by leading researchers from around the world provide scholars and students with an engaging and authoritative survey of current thinking in media and gender research The Companion includes the following features With each chapter addressing a distinct concrete set of issues the volume includes research from around the world to engage readers in a broad array of global and transnational issues and intersectional perspectives Authors address a series of important questions that have consequences for current and future thinking in the field including postfeminism sexual violence masculinity media industries queer identities video games digital policy media activism sexualization docusoaps teen drama cosmetic surgery media Islamophobia sport telenovelas news audiences pornography and social and mobile media A range of academic disciplines inform exploration of key issues around production and policymaking representation audience engagement and the place of gender in media studies The Routledge Companion to Media and Gender is an essential guide to the central ideas concepts and debates currently shaping media and gender research

The Mass Media in Canada Mary Vipond, 2011-03-25 Canada has one of the most advanced mass media systems in the world which allows Canadians more access to American culture via television the movies and the Internet than ever before At the same time governments support the production and distribution of Canadian content to Canadians In this fully updated fourth edition Mary Vipond traces the rise of the traditional mass media in Canada explores the new media and discusses the influence of old mass media on new media Clearly written and persuasively argued The Mass Media in Canada demonstrates the huge challenges government face today in trying to influence media content and considers the troubling questions of who decides what we read watch and hear

Music in Range Brian Fauteux, 2015-11-02 Music in Range explores the history of Canadian campus radio highlighting the factors that have shaped its close relationship with local music and culture The book traces how campus radio practitioners have expanded stations from campus borders to surrounding musical and cultural communities by acquiring FM licenses and establishing community based mandates The culture of a campus station extends beyond its studio and into the wider community where it is connected to the local music scene within its broadcast range The book examines campus stations and local music in Vancouver Winnipeg and Sackville NB and highlights the ways that campus stations through music based programming their operational practices and the culture under which they operate produce alternative methods and values for circulating local and independent Canadian artists at a time when ubiquitous commercial media outlets do exactly the opposite Music in Range sheds light on a radio sector that is an integral component of Canada's musical and cultural fabric and positions campus radio as a worthy site of attention at a time when connectivity and sharing between musicians music fans and cultural intermediaries are increasingly shaping our experience of music radio and sound

The Media Gaze Augie Fleras, 2011-09-15 While Canada is known for its official commitment to diversity a close look at our media reveals that though they frequently promote superficial representations of difference they actually play a pivotal role in producing and reproducing the values structures and priorities of a predominantly straight white male society The Media Gaze exposes how newscasters advertisers filmmakers and television programmers attempt to co opt audiences into believing that media depictions entail neither prejudice nor perspective In truth the experiences of those who fall outside of the media s preferred populations are actively ignored or misrepresented In this timely audit of the Canadian mainstream media sociologist Augie Fleras draws on compelling case studies to explore the societal implications of the industry s hidden bias He also examines alternative forms of media and media literacy to present readers with tools to challenge the dominant agenda

Journalism in Crisis Mike Gasher, Colette Brin, Christine Crowther, Gretchen King, Errol Salamon, Simon Thibault, 2016-01-01 Journalism in Crisis addresses the concerns of scholars activists and journalists committed to Canadian journalism as a democratic institution and as a set of democratic practices The authors look within Canada and abroad for solutions for balancing the Canadian media ecology Public policies have been central to the creation and shaping of Canada s media system and rather than wait for new technologies or economic models the contributors offer concrete recommendations for how public policies can foster journalism that can support democratic life in twenty first century Canada Their work which includes new theoretical perspectives and valuable discussions of journalism practices in public private and community media should be read by professional and citizen journalists academics media activists policy makers and media audiences concerned about the future of democratic journalism in Canada

Education for Democracy 2.0, 2021-01-04 Winner of the 2022 AESA Critics Choice Book Award Winner of the 2022 Society of Professors of Education Outstanding Book Award This diverse and global collection of scholars educators and activists presents a panorama of perspectives on media education and democracy in a digital age Drawing upon projects in both the formal and non formal education spheres the authors contribute towards conceptualizing developing cultivating building and elaborating a more respectful robust and critically engaged democracy Given the challenges our world faces it may seem that small projects programs and initiatives offer just a salve to broader social and political dynamics but these are the types of contestatory spaces openings and initiatives that enable participatory democracy This book provides a space for experimentation and dialogue and a platform for projects and initiatives that challenge or supplement the learning offered by traditional forms of education The Foreword is written by Divina Frau Meigs Sorbonne Nouvelle Paris and the Postscript by Roberto Aparici and David Garc a Mar n UNED Madrid Contributors are Roberto Aparici Adelina Calvo Salvador Paul R Carr Colin Chasi Sandra L Cuervo Sanchez Laura D Olimpio Milena Droumeva Elia Fern ndez Diaz Ellen Field Michael Forsman Divina Frau Meigs Aquilina Fueyo Guti rrez David Garc a Mar n Tania
