Miller, 2021-08-23 Making Sense of Numbers teaches students the skills they need to be both consumers and producers of quantitative research able to read about collect calculate and communicate numeric information for both everyday tasks and school or work assignments Jane E Miller uses annotated examples on a wide variety of topics to illustrate how to use new terms concepts and approaches to working with numbers Exploratory Writing Alison Jones, 2022-12-12 Business Book Awards 2023 Finalist A really powerful book Bruce Daisley Simple tools extraordinary results Everything we re learning about how we function best as humans in the digital age is pointing towards one of our oldest technologies the pen and the page Exploratory writing writing for ourselves not for others writing when we don t know exactly what it is we want to say is one of the most powerful and lightweight thinking tools we have at our disposal It s also been until now one of the most overlooked But the world s most influential leaders are increasingly using the techniques in this book to support the key skills of the 21st century self mastery creativity focus solution finding collaboration and so can you Alison Jones has been helping business leaders identify and articulate what matters over a 30 year career in publishing and as a coach The founder of Practical Inspiration Publishing and host of The Extraordinary Business Book Club podcast and community she is passionate about the power of writing to change ourselves and the world Ethics in Mental Health-Substance Use David B. Cooper, 2017-05-08 Ethics in Mental Health Substance Use aims to explore the comprehensive concerns and dilemmas occurring from mental health and substance use problems and to inform develop and educate by sharing and pooling knowledge and enhancing expertise in this fast developing region of ethics and ethical care and practice This volume concentrates on ethical concerns dilemmas and concepts specifically interrelated as a collation of problem s that directly or indirectly affect the life of the individual and family Whilst presenting a balanced view of what is ethically best practice today this title challenges concepts and stimulates debate exploring all aspects of the development in treatment intervention and care responses and the adoption of research led best practice Diversity in Mind and in Action: Social justice matters! : social psychological and political challenges Jean Lau Chin, 2009 While full victory in that challenge has been slow to come Diversity in Mind and in Action makes it clear that there are success stories to be shared and new avenues to be spotlighted A Terrible Thing to Waste Harriet A. Washington, 2019-07-23 A powerful and indispensable look at the devastating consequences of environmental racism Gerald Markowitz and what we can do to remedy its toxic effects on marginalized communities Did you know Middle class African American households with incomes between 50 000 and 60 000 live in neighborhoods that are more polluted than those of very poor white households with incomes below 10 000 When swallowed a lead paint chip no larger than a fingernail can send a toddler into a coma one tenth of that amount will lower his IQ Nearly two of every five African American homes in Baltimore are plagued by lead based paint Almost all of the 37 500 Baltimore children who suffered lead poisoning between 2003 and 2015 were African American

From injuries caused by lead poisoning to the devastating effects of atmospheric pollution infectious disease and industrial waste Americans of color are harmed by environmental hazards in staggeringly disproportionate numbers This systemic onslaught of toxic exposure and institutional negligence causes irreparable physical harm to millions of people across the country cutting lives tragically short and needlessly burdening our health care system But these deadly environments create another insidious and often overlooked consequence robbing communities of color and America as a whole of intellectual power The 1994 publication of The Bell Curve and its controversial thesis catapulted the topic of genetic racial differences in IQ to the forefront of a renewed and heated debate Now in A Terrible Thing to Waste award winning science writer Harriet A Washington adds her incisive analysis to the fray arguing that IQ is a biased and flawed metric but that it is useful for tracking cognitive damage She takes apart the spurious notion of intelligence as an inherited trait using copious data that instead point to a different cause of the reported African American white IQ gap environmental racism a confluence of racism and other institutional factors that relegate marginalized communities to living and working near sites of toxic waste pollution and insufficient sanitation services She investigates heavy metals neurotoxins deficient prenatal care bad nutrition and even pathogens as chief agents influencing intelligence to explain why communities of color are disproportionately affected and what can be done to remedy this devastating problem Featuring extensive scientific research and Washington's sharp lively reporting A Terrible Thing to Waste is sure to outrage transform the conversation and inspire debate
