

An oil painting of a coastal landscape. The scene is dominated by a wide, flat expanse of land, possibly a beach or a tidal flat, with various shades of brown, tan, and grey. In the foreground, there are several small figures of people and a dog. The middle ground shows a line of water or a path, with more figures scattered across it. The background features a hazy, distant shoreline under a sky filled with soft, textured clouds in shades of blue, white, and grey. The overall style is impressionistic, with visible brushstrokes and a focus on light and color.
