The Bloomsbury Handbook of Children's and Young Adult Literature in Education Katrina Bartow Jacobs, Patricia Crawford, 2026-02-19. This handbook covers the content, form, and implications of children's and young adult literature within the sphere of education. Social Exclusion and Community Capital Mei-Ling Wang, Vinand Mukatabala Nantulya, 2008. What is social exclusion? Why is social exclusion the most daunting threat to global health and development? Social Exclusion and Community Capital has created a new theory and offers a multi-equitable partnership model to resolve global health challenges. This new theory offers readers a valuable insight into the use of critical links and community capital to improve global development. The book also illustrates the urgent need to address exclusion as a collective undertaking in the form of innovative partnerships. The new multi-equitable model provides an integrated framework for charities, businesses, inter-governmental agencies, and civil societies. Social Exclusion and Community Capital will be highly influential to global policy planners, academic scholars, global health practitioners, and students by providing an innovative solution to improve the future of humanity.

International Political Economy Thomas H. Oatley, 2010. Broadly viewing the global economy as a political competition that produces winners and losers, International Political Economy holistically and accessibly introduces the field of IPE to students with limited background in political theory, history, and economics. This text surveys major interests and institutions and examines how state and non-state actors pursue wealth and power. Emphasizing fundamental economic concepts as well as the interplay between domestic and international politics, International Political Economy not only explains how the global economy works; it also encourages students to think critically about how economic policy is made in the context of globalization.

Latin America in the Twenty-first Century Manuel Antonio Garretón

Merino,2003 The myriad changes affecting contemporary Latin America in the context of a globalizing world are so far reaching argue the authors of Latin America in the Twenty First Century that understanding them requires both new conceptual tools and multidisciplinary analysis In response to this need they explore developments in the region in terms of four central distinct processes the construction of political democracies social democratization the reinserting of Latin American economies in the world system and the creation of a new model of modernity that encompasses both globalization and cultural identities The authors construct a sociopolitical matrix to help explain Latin America s political economic social and cultural changes in the context of a globalizing world
