In that time, central government has funded materials and the appointment of a national anti-bullying development officer to assist local authorities and schools in developing effective strategies. Within a national framework, local authority initiatives and schools have adopted diverse approaches. This report documents the progress made across the country, bringing together local and national initiatives. The information contained in the report has been drawn from a number of sources: questionnaires sent in September 1994 to education authorities and to teacher training institutions; documents prepared by education authorities, schools, and individuals; and data collected by the Scottish Council for Research in Education (SCRE) during the course of its anti-bullying development work and by the Anti Bullying Development Officer The focus is on policy training and support from within the educational system Central government local government school and teacher education institutions have all worked to raise awareness of the problems of bullying and to put in place ways of dealing with it This report will enable those striving to create an anti bullying culture in schools to draw on experience of others It sets out to inform the debate as to how to embed anti bullying strategies securely into the fabric of the educational system Chapters are Sharing the Past and the Future Summary Understanding the Anti Bullying Process The Role of the SOED Scottish Office Education Department Nationwide Themes and Strategies A Tour of Local Authority Action Input from the Teacher Education Institutions Anti Bullying and the Independent Sector and Future Action Appendixes describing anti bullying programs resources and actions account for about one fifth of the document Contains 62 references JBJ
