Aesthetic Teaching Pedagogies Reynaldo B. Inocian, 2018-10-09 This book presents an assortment of teaching and assessment strategies appropriate for 21st century learners based on the author's 25 years of teaching experience in private and state school institutions in the Philippines. It highlights the outcomes-based assessment of learning the curriculum basics for arts-based teaching/learning activities based on the integrated arts for an effective instructional process and examples in the teaching of critical thinking, communication, collaboration, and creativity known as the Four Cs. While the monograph focuses on the author's local context, a plethora of citations provides clear connections that address learner diversity in recent global education contexts. Bacolod, 2023-12-01 The contributors to this book examine the state development issues, practices, and approaches to translation studies in the Philippines. The Philippines is a highly multilingual country with many indigenous languages and regional dialects spoken alongside foreign imports, particularly English and Spanish. Professor Moratto, Professor Bacolod, and their contributors analyse the different roles that translation plays across an extensive range of areas, including disaster mitigation, crisis communication, gender bias, marginalization of Philippine languages, academe, and views on sex, gender, and sexuality. They look at a range of different types of translation, from the translation of biblical texts to audio-visual translation and machine translation. Emphasising the importance of translation as an interdisciplinary field, they use a variety of analytic lenses, including anthropological linguistics, language and culture studies, semantics, structural linguistics, and performance arts, among others. A comprehensive resource for scholars and practitioners of translation, as well as a valuable reference for scholars across a wider range of humanities and social science disciplines in examining the culture, language, and society of the Philippines. EducNews, 2013 The Routledge Handbook of English Language Education in the Philippines Julius C. Martinez, Isabel Pefianco Martin, 2025-09-30 This handbook serves as a comprehensive resource on English language education in the Philippines, addressing a wide range of issues, including ideologies, multilingualism, identities, policies, methodologies, assessment, teacher education, and curriculum. Chapters cover a range of educational contexts, from Luzon to Mindanao islands, from basic to higher education, and from formal to non-formal schooling. This includes repairing pedagogies that redress injustices experienced by historically marginalized groups and hoping for possibilities and approaches to teaching and learning English that are just, equitable, and inclusive. The six sections in the Handbook bring up conditions for thinking and doing otherwise, pointing to ways in which genuine changes can start to happen. Scholars from diverse backgrounds come together in this handbook to take collective ownership of English language education in the Philippines This ownership does not mean ignoring and disposing of the country's colonial past but reclaiming English language education as an ongoing project instead This handbook likewise demonstrates that such a project makes it possible for wider audiences to see that Global South scholars from and in the Philippines also have much to teach the rest of the world about thinking and doing otherwise and by extension problematizing repairing and hoping Given its scope and breadth the handbook is an invaluable reference for students pre service and in service teachers teacher educators researchers and policymakers interested in English language language education TESOL sociolinguistics and applied linguistics
