

The background of the cover is a photograph of a modern interior hallway. The walls are finished with light-colored wood panels. On the left, there is a long, low wooden bench. In the center, a large, sculptural potted plant with a twisted, light-colored trunk and green foliage sits on a light-colored tiled floor. To the right, a dark door is set into a white wall. The lighting is soft and even, creating a clean and professional atmosphere.

Professional Practice Ronald Miles Veitch, Dianne Rose Jackman, Mary Katherine Dixon, 1990 The BIID Interior Design Job Book Diana Yakeley, 2019-07-25 The BIID Interior Design Job Book is the first book to set out the professional standard for running an interior design project. It does so step by step in a sequence designed to complement the construction industry's standard Plan of Work, providing guidance at every stage of a job from appraisal of the client's requirements through to completion. Suitable for all interior design projects, whether small or large and for both interior designers working in an integrated design team and those acting as lead consultant, it brings a codified procedure and a professional rigour to the way your practice works and the way your projects run, vital for achieving a professional edge in a competitive field. Its hands-on approach is supplemented by numerous model letters and specimen forms which the designer can quickly adapt to any job in question.
